[SB 50]

AN ACT REVISING THE LAWS GOVERNING THE REVIEW OF LAWS CONTAINING DEDICATED REVENUE PROVISIONS AND STATUTORY APPROPRIATIONS; PROVIDING FOR DISCRETION IN WHICH LAWS TO REVIEW; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 17-1-501, 17-1-503, 17-1-505, 17-1-508, AND 17-2-111, MCA.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 18 1999

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 17-1-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-1-501. Legislative ~~findings~~ intent. ~~(1) The legislature finds that provisions for dedicating state revenue and statutorily appropriating funds have increased in number, reduce legislative control over state spending, complicate the state funding structure, and increase the effort required to budget, appropriate, and monitor public funds. The dedication and statutory appropriation of funds result in the inability of the legislature to practically and systematically conduct reasoned prioritization of programs or funds.~~

~~(2)~~(1) It is the intent of the legislature, by establishing criteria for the review and evaluation of revenue dedication provisions, to ensure that provisions for revenue dedication:

(a) are based on sound principles of revenue dedication as described in 17-1-507;

(b) reflect present circumstances and legislative priorities for state spending;

(c) are terminated when they are no longer necessary or appropriate; and

(d) are subject to the same legislative scrutiny as programs or activities funded from the general fund.

~~(3)~~(2) It is the intent of the legislature, by establishing criteria for the review and evaluation of statutory appropriation provisions, to ensure that provisions with statutory appropriations:

(a) reflect present circumstances and legislative priorities for state spending;

(b) are terminated when they are no longer necessary or appropriate; and

(c) are subject to the same legislative scrutiny as other appropriations."

Section 2. Section 17-1-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-1-503. Transfer of fund balances to general fund. ~~(1)~~ The balance remaining in each special revenue account terminated pursuant to legislative review must be deposited in the general fund.

~~(2) If the legislative finance committee concurs, the department may transfer the unobligated balance in a special revenue account to the general fund based upon the survey conducted pursuant to 17-2-111.~~"

Section 3. Section 17-1-505, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-1-505. Review of dedicated revenue provisions. (1) Each interim, the legislative finance committee shall review ~~each~~ dedicated revenue ~~provision not exempted~~ provisions based upon procedures established under subsection (4) and the principles of revenue dedication set forth in 17-1-507 to ensure that legislative policy is clearly stated. ~~The committee shall also carry out the review prescribed by subsection (4).~~

(2) The legislature recognizes that dedicated revenue provisions are subject to review by:

(a) the office of budget and program planning in the development and implementation of the executive budget and analysis of legislation;

(b) the legislative finance division in analyzing the executive budget;

(c) the legislative services division in drafting legislation;

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 19 1999

(d) the legislative auditor in auditing agencies; and

(e) the department of administration in performing the functions provided for in 17-2-106 and 17-2-111.

(3) To avoid unnecessary use of dedicated revenue provisions, the entities listed in subsection (2) shall, in the course of current duties, consider the principles in 17-1-507 and the criteria listed in this subsection for each new or existing dedicated revenue provision. A dedicated revenue provision should not give a program or activity an unfair advantage for funding. The expenditures from a dedicated revenue provision must be based on requirements for meeting a legislatively established outcome. Statutorily mandated programs or activities funded through dedicated revenue provisions from general revenue sources must be reviewed to the same extent as programs or activities funded from the general fund. The use of a dedicated revenue provision may be justified if it satisfies one or more of the following:

(a) The program or activity funded provides direct benefits for those who pay the dedicated tax, fee, or assessment, and the tax, fee, or assessment is commensurate with the costs of the program or activity.

(b) The use of the dedicated revenue provision provides special information or other advantages that could not be obtained if the revenue were allocated to the general fund.

(c) The dedicated revenue provision provides program funding at a level equivalent to the expenditures established by the legislature.

(d) The dedicated revenue provision involves collection and allocation formulas that are appropriate to the present circumstances and current priorities in state government.

(e) The dedicated revenue provision does not impair the legislature's ability to scrutinize budgets, control expenditures, and establish priorities for state spending.

(f) The dedicated revenue provision results in an appropriate projected ending fund balance.

(g) The dedicated revenue provision fulfills a continuing, legislatively recognized need.

(h) The dedicated revenue provision does not result in accounting or auditing inefficiency.

(4) The committee shall establish procedures to facilitate a biennial review and evaluation of dedicated revenue provisions. ~~If the review determines that the revenue dedication is constitutionally mandated, is for debt service, funds emergency services, or is a user fee that is designed to provide direct benefits for those who pay the dedicated tax, fee, or assessment in an amount commensurate with the benefits provided, the revenue dedication may be exempt from future review.~~

(5) Upon completion of the review, the committee shall report a summary of its findinge to the legislature, including its recommendation of termination or extension, with or without modification, of the dedicated revenue provision. ~~The summary must include the purpose of the revenue dedication, the source of funding, the activity funded, the number of personnel associated with the~~

~~activity, and any balance in the dedicated revenue fund. The summary must state the reason why the revenue dedication is exempt from future review.~~"

Section 4. Section 17-1-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-1-508. Review of statutory appropriations. (1) Each interim, the legislative finance committee shall, based upon procedures established pursuant to subsection (5), review ~~each~~ statutory ~~appropriation~~ appropriations that ~~is~~ are contained in ~~a section~~ the sections listed in 17-7-502 ~~and that is not exempted under subsection (6) of this section and shall review the guidelines set forth in subsection (4)~~ to eliminate ~~statutory appropriations~~ those that no longer fulfill a legislativo need and to ensure that legislative policy is clearly stated concerning the use of statutory appropriations.

(2) Each hiennium, the office of hudget and program planning shall, in development of the executive budget, identify instances in which statutory appropriations in current law do not appear consistent with the guidelines set forth in subsection ~~(4)~~ (3).

~~(3) As part of each agency audit, the legislative auditor shall review statutory appropriations to the agency and report instances in which they do not appear consistent with the guidelines set forth in subsection (4).~~

~~(4)~~(3) The review of statutory appropriations must determine whether a statutory appropriation meets the requirements of 17-7-501. A statutory appropriation from a continuing and reliable source of revenue may not be used to fund administrative costs. In reviewing and establishing statutory appropriations, the legislature shall consider the following guidelines. A statutory appropriation may be considered appropriate if:

(a) the fund or use requires an appropriation;

(b) the money is not from a continuing, reliable, and estimable source;

(c) the use of the appropriation or the expenditure occurrence is not predictable and reliable;

(d) tbe authority does not exist elsewhere;

(e) an alternative appropriation method is not available, practical, or effective;

(f) other than for emergency purposes, it does not appropriate money from the state general fund;

(g) the money is dedicated for a specific use;

(h) the legislature wishes the activity to be funded on a continual basis; and

(i) when feasible, an expenditure cap and sunset date are included.

~~(5)~~(4) The office of budget and program planning shall prepare a fiscal note for each piece of legislation that proposes to create or amend a statutory appropriation. It shall, consistent with the guidelines in this section, review each of these pieces of legislation. Its findings concerning the statutory appropriation must be contained in the fiscal note accompanying that legislation.

~~(5)~~(5) The legislative finance committee shall establish procedures to facilitate a biennial review and evaluation of statutory appropriations. ~~If the review determines that continual review of a statutory appropriation is not necessary, the statutory appropriation may be exempt from future review.~~ Upon completion of the review, the committee shall report a summary of its findings to the legislature, including a recommendation for terminating, extending, or modifying the statutory appropriations reviewed."

Section 5. Section 17-2-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-2-111. ~~Survey of state~~ State special revenue accounts — report. Each biennium, the department shall ~~conduct a survey of~~ provide information on all state special revenue accounts ~~not exempt under 17-1-505 and coordinate with~~ as requested by the legislative finance committee ~~to provide information necessary to complete the review required by 17-1-505~~. The department shall provide the ~~survey~~ information to the legislative finance committee not later than February 1 of the year preceding a regular session of the legislature."

[SB 34]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THAT ONLY LOANS TO THE GENERAL FUND MUST BE REPAID WITH INTEREST AND THAT A GENERAL FUND LOAN FOR BUDGET AMENDMENT PURPOSES DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A SIGNIFICANT ASCERTAINABLE COMMITMENT OF PRESENT GENERAL FUND SUPPORT; AMENDING SECTIONS 17-2-105, 17-2-107, AND 17-7-402, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 17-2-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-2-105. Maintenance of fund and account records and interfund loans. (1) The state treasurer shall record receipts and disbursements for treasury funds and shall maintain fund records in a manner that reflects the total cash and invested balance of each fund. The state treasurer shall also maintain records of individual funds within the debt service, agency, capital projects, and trust fund types in a manner that reflects the total cash and invested balance of each fund. When necessary to meet federal or other requirements that money be segregated in the treasury, the state treasurer may establish accounts, funds, or subfunds within any fund type listed in 17-2-102.

(2) (a) For the purpose of supplying deficiencies in the general fund, the state treasurer may temporarily borrow from other treasury funds, excluding pension trust funds, providing that the loan is recorded in the state accounting records. Except as provided in subsection (2)(b), the loan does not bear interest. A fund may not be so impaired that all proper demands on the fund cannot be met.

(b) If a loan to the general fund is made from a fund that retains its own interest, the department shall repay the loan with interest at a rate established by the state treasurer based on the estimated interest rate the funds would have earned if the funds had not been borrowed."

Section 2. Section 17-2-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-2-107. Accurate accounting records and interentity loans. (1) The department ~~of administration~~ shall record receipts and disbursements for treasury funds and for accounting entities within treasury funds and shall maintain records in a manner that reflects the total cash and invested balance of each fund and each accounting entity. The department ~~of administration~~ shall adopt the necessary procedures to ensure that interdepartmental or intradepartmental transfers of money or loans do not result in inflation of figures reflecting total governmental costs and revenue.

(2) (a) ~~When~~ Subject to 17-2-105, when the expenditure of an appropriation from a fund designated in 17-2-102(1)(a) through (1)(c) is necessary and the cash balance in the accounting entity from which the appropriation was made is insufficient, the department ~~of administration~~ may authorize a temporary loan, bearing no interest, of unrestricted money from other accounting entities if there is reasonable evidence that the income will be sufficient to repay the loan within 1 calendar year and if the loan is recorded in the state accounting records. An accounting entity receiving a loan or an accounting entity from which a loan is made may not be so impaired that all proper demands on the accounting entity cannot be met even if the loan is extended.

(b) (i) When an expenditure from a fund or subfund designated in 17-2-102(1)(d) is necessary and the cash balance in the fund or subfund from which the expenditure is to be made is insufficient, the commissioner of higher education may authorize a temporary loan, bearing interest as provided in subsection (4), of money from the agency's other funds or subfunds if there is reasonable evidence that the income will be sufficient to repay the loan within 1 calendar year and if the loan is recorded in the state accounting records. A fund or subfund receiving a loan or from which a loan is made may not be so impaired that all proper demands on the fund or subfund cannot be met even if the loan is extended.

(ii) One accounting entity within each fund or subfund designated in 17-2-102(1)(d) must be established for the sole purpose of recording loans between the funds or subfunds. This accounting entity is the only accounting entity within each fund or subfund that may receive a loan or from which a loan may be made.

(c) A loan made under subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b) must be repaid within 1 calendar year of the date on which the loan is approved unless it is extended under subsection (3) or by specific legislative authorization.

(3) Under unusual circumstances, the director of the department ~~of administration~~ or the board of regents may grant one extension for up to 1 year for a loan made under subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b). The director or board shall prepare a written justification and proposed repayment plan for each loan extension authorized and shall furnish a copy of the written justification and proposed repayment plan to the house appropriations and senate finance and claims committees at the next legislative session.

(4) Any loan from the current unrestricted subfund to funds designated in 17-2-102(1)(d)(i)(D) and (1)(d)(ii) through (1)(d)(vi) must bear interest at a rate equivalent to the previous fiscal year's average rate of return on the board of investments' short-term investment pool.

(5) If for 2 consecutive fiscal yearends a loan or an extension of a loan has been authorized to the same accounting entity as provided in subsection (2) or (3), the department ~~of administration~~ or the commissioner of higher education shall submit to the legislative finance committee by September 1 of the following fiscal year a written report containing an explanation as to why the second loan or extension was made, an analysis of the solvency of the accounting entity or accounting entities within the university fund or subfund, and a plan for repaying the loans.

(6) If for 2 consecutive fiscal yearends an accounting entity in a fund or subfund designated in 17-2-102(1)(d) has a negative cash balance, the commissioner of higher education shall submit to the legislative finance committee by September 1 of the following fiscal year a written report containing an explanation as to why the accounting entity has a negative cash balance, an analysis of the solvency of the accounting entity, and a plan to address any problems concerning the accounting entity's negative cash balance or solvency.

(7) (a) An accounting entity in a fund designated in 17-2-102(1)(a) through (1)(c) may not have a negative cash balance at fiscal yearend. The department ~~of administration~~ may, however, allow an accounting entity to carry a negative balance at any point during the fiscal year if the negative cash balance does not exist for more than 7 working days.

(b) (i) Except as provided in subsection (7)(b)(ii), a unit of the university system shall maintain a positive cash balance in the funds and subfunds designated in 17-2-102(1)(d).

(ii) If a fund or subfund inadvertently has a negative cash balance, the department ~~of administration~~ may allow the fund or subfund to carry the negative cash balance for no more than 7 working days. If the negative cash balance exists for more than 7 working days, a transaction may not be processed through the statewide accounting system for that fund or subfund.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (2) through (4), the department ~~of administration~~ may authorize loans to accounting entities in the federal and state special revenue funds with long-term repayment whenever necessary because of the timing of the receipt of ~~agreed upon~~ agreed-upon reimbursements from federal, private, or other governmental entity sources for disbursements made. The department ~~of administration~~ may approve the loans if the requesting agency can demonstrate that the total loan balance does not exceed total receivables from federal, private, or other governmental entity sources and receivables have been billed on a timely basis. The loan must be repaid under terms and conditions that may be determined by the department ~~of administration~~ or by specific legislative authorization."

Section 3. Section 17-7-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-7-402. Budget amendment requirements. (1) Except as provided in subsection ~~(6)~~ (7), a budget amendment may not be approved:

Section 2. Section 2-4-110, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-110. Departmental review of rule notices. (1) The head of each department of the executive branch shall appoint an existing attorney, paralegal, or other qualified person from that department to review each departmental rule proposal notice, adoption notice, or other notice relating to administrative rulemaking. Notice of the name of the person appointed under this subsection and of any successor must be given to the secretary of state and the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee within 10 days of the appointment.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 39 1999

compliance with this chapter before the notice is filed with the secretary of state. The reviewer shall pay particular attention to 2-4-302 and 2-4-305. The review must include hut is not limited to consideration of:

(a) the adequacy of the rationale for the intended action and whether the intended action is reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the code section or sections implemented;

(b) whether the proper statutery authority for the rule is cited;

(c) whether the citation of the code section or sections implemented is correct; and

(d) whether the intended action is contrary to the code section or sections implemented or to other law.

(3) The person appeinted under subsection (1) shall sign each notice for which this section requires a review. The act of signing is an affirmation that the review required by this section has been performed to the best of the reviewer's ability. The secretary of state may not accept for filing a notice that does not have the signature required hy this section."

Section 3. Section 2-4-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-302. Notice, hearing, and submission of views. (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall give written notice of its intended action. The notice must include a statement of either the terms or substance of the intended action or a description of the subjects and issues involved, the rationale for the intended action, and the time when, place where, and manner in which interested persons may present their views on the intended action. The rationale must be written in plain, easily understood language.

(2) (a) The notice must be filed with the secretary of state for publication in the register, as provided in 2-4-312, and mailed within 3 days of publication to the sponsor of the legislative bill that enacted the section that is cited as implemented in the notice if the notice is the initial proposal to implement the section, to interested persons who have made timely requests to the agency to be informed of its rulemaking proceedings, and to the office of any professional, trade, or industrial society or organization or member of those entities who has filed a request with the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee when the request has been forwarded to the agency as provided in subsection (2)(b). Each agency shall create and maintain a list of interested persons and the subject or subjects in which each person on the list is interested. A person who submits a written comment or attends a hearing in regard to proposed agency action under this part must be informed of the list by the agency. An agency complies with this subsection if it includes in the notice an advisement explaining how persons may be placed on the list of interested persons and if it complies with subsection (7).

(b) The appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee shall forward a list of all organizations or persons who have submitted a request to he informed of agency actions to ~~all~~ the agencies that the committee oversees ~~publishing~~ that publish rulemaking notices in tbe register. The list must be amended by the agency upon request of any person requesting to be added to or deleted from the list.

(c) The notice required by suhsections (1) and (2)(a) must be published and mailed at least 30 days in advance of the agency's intended action. In addition to publishing and mailing the notice under subsection (2)(a) ~~of this section~~, the agency shall post the notice on the state electronic bulletin board or other electronic communications system available to the public.

(d) The agency shall also, at the time that its personnel begin to work on the substantive content and the wording of the initial rule proposal to implement one or more statutes, notify the sponsor of the legislative bill that enacted the section.

(3) If a statute provides for a method of publication different from that provided in subsection (2), the affected agency shall comply with the statute in addition to the requirements contained in this section. However, the notice period may not be less than 30 days or more than 6 months.

(4) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall afford interested persons at least 20 days' notice of a hearing and at least 28 days from the day of the original notice to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. If an amended or supplemental notice is filed, additional time may be allowed for oral or written submissions. In the case of substantive rules, the notice of proposed rulemaking must state that opportunity for oral hearing must be granted if requested by either 10% or 25, whichever is less, of the persons who will be directly affected by the proposed rule, by a governmental subdivision or agency, by the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee, or by an association having not less than 25 members who will be directly affected. If the proposed rulemaking involves matters of significant interest to the public, the agency shall schedule an oral hearing.

(5) An agency may continue a hearing date for cause. In the discretion of the agency, contested case procedures need not be followed in hearings held pursuant to this section. If a hearing is otherwise required by statute, nothing in this section alters that requirement.

(6) If an agency fails to publish a notice of adoption within the time required by 2-4-305(7) and the agency again proposes the same rule for adoption, amendment, or repeal, the proposal must be considered a new proposal for purposes of compliance with this chapter.

(7) At the commencement of a hearing on the intended action, the person designated by the agency to preside at the hearing shall:

(a) read aloud the "Notice of Function of Administrative ~~Code~~ Rule Review Committee" appearing in the register; and

(b) inform the persons at the hearing of the provisions of subsection (2)(a) and provide them an opportunity to place their names on the list.

(8) For purposes of notifying sponsors under subsections (2)(a) and (2)(d) who are no longer members of the legislature, a former legislator who wishes to receive notice may keep the former legislator's name, address, and telephone number on file with the secretary of state. An agency proposing rules shall consult the register when providing sponsor notice."

Section 4. Section 2-4-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-305. Requisites for validity — authority and statement of reasons. (1) The agency shall fully consider written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule. Upon adoption of a rule, an agency shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating in the statement the reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption. If substantial differences exist between the rule as proposed and as adopted and the differences have not been described or set forth in the adopted rule as that rule is printed in the register, the differences must be described in the statement of reasons for and against agency action. When written or oral submissions have not been received, an agency may omit the statement of reasons.

(2) Rules may not unnecessarily repeat statutory language. Whenever it is necessary to refer to statutory language in order to convey the meaning of a rule interpreting the language, the reference must clearly indicate the portion of the language that is statutory and the portion that is an amplification of the language.

(3) Each proposed and adopted rule must include a citation to the specific grant of rulemaking authority pursuant to which the rule or any part of the rule is adopted. In addition, each proposed and adopted rule must include a citation to the specific section or sections in the Montana Code Annotated that the rule purports to implement. A substantive rule may not be proposed or adopted unless:

(a) a statute granting the agency authority to adopt rules clearly and specifically lists the subject matter of the rule as a subject upon which the agency shall or may adopt rules; or

(b) the rule implements and relates to a subject matter or an agency function that is clearly and specifically included in a statute to which the grant of rulemaking authority extends.

(4) Each rule that is proposed and adopted by an agency and that implements a policy of a governing board or commission must include a citation to and description of the policy implemented. Each agency rule implementing a policy and the policy itself must be based on legal authority and otherwise comply with the requisites for validity of rules established hy this chapter.

(5) To be effective, each substantive rule adopted must be within the scope of authority conferred and in accordance with standards prescribed by other provisions of law.

(6) Whenever by the express or implied terms of any statute a state agency has authority to adopt rules to implement, interpret, make specific, or otherwise carry out the provisions of the statute, an adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is not valid or effective unless it is:

(a) consistent and not in conflict with the statute; and

(b) reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute. A statute mandating that the agency adopt rules establishes the necessity for rules but does not, standing alone, constitute reasonable necessity for a rule. The agency shall also address the reasonableness component of the reasonable necessity requirement by, as indicated in 2-4-302(1) and subsection (1) of this section, stating the principal reasons and the rationale for its intended action and for the particular approach that it takes in complying with the mandate to adopt rules. Subject to the provisions of subsection (8), reasonable necessity must be clearly and thoroughly demonstrated for each adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule in the agency's notice of proposed rulemaking and in the written and oral data, views, comments, or testimony submitted by the public or the agency and considered by the agency.

(7) A rule is not valid unless notice of it is given and it is adopted in substantial compliance with 2-4-302, 2-4-303, or 2-4-306 and this section and unless notice of adoption of the rule is published within 6 months of the publishing of notice of the proposed rule. If an amended or supplemental notice of either proposed or final rulemaking, or both, is published concerning the same rule, the 6-month limit must be determined with reference to the latest notice in all cases.

(8) An agency may use an amended proposal notice or the adoption notice to correct deficiencies in citations of authority for rules and in citations of sections implemented by rules. An agency may use an amended proposal notice but, except for clerical corrections, may not use the adoption notice to correct deficiencies in a statement of reasonable necessity.

(9) If a majority of the members of the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee notify the committee presiding officer that those members object to a notice of proposed rulemaking, the committee shall notify the agency in writing that the committee objects to the proposal notice and will address the objections at the next committee meeting. Following notice by the committee to the agency, the proposal notice may not be adopted until publication of the last issue of the register that is published before expiration of the 6-month period during which the adoption notice must be published, unless prior to that time, the committee meets and does not make the same objection. A copy of the committee's notification to the agency must be included in the committee's records."

Section 5. Section 2-4-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-306. Filing, format, and effective date — dissemination of emergency rules. (1) Each agency shall file with the secretary of state a copy of each rule adopted by it.

(2) The secretary of state may prescribe a format, style, and arrangement for notices and rules that are filed pursuant to this chapter and may refuse to accept the filing of any notice or rule that is not in compliance with this chapter. The secretary of state shall keep and maintain a permanent register of all notices and rules filed, including superseded and repealed rules, that must be open to public inspection and shall provide copies of any notice or rule upon request of any person. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the secretary of state may require the payment of the cost of providing copies.

(3) In the event that the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee has conducted a poll of the legislature in accordance with 2-4-403 ~~or the revenue oversight committee has conducted a poll in accordance with 5-18-109~~, the results of the poll must be published with the rule.

(4) Each rule is effective after publication in the register, as provided in 2-4-312, except that:

(a) if a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule, the later date is the effective date;

(b) subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions:

(i) a temporary rule is effective immediately upon filing with the secretary of state or at a stated date following publication in the register; and

(ii) an emergency rule is effective at a stated date following publication in the register or immediately upon filing with the secretary of state if the agency finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare. The agency's finding and a brief statement of reasons for the finding must be filed with the rule. The agency shall, in addition to the required publication in the register, take appropriate and extraordinary measures to make emergency rules known to each person who may be affected by them.

(c) if, following written administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee notification to an agency under 2-4-305(9), the committee meets and under 2-4-406(1) objects to all or some portion of a proposed rule before the rule is adopted, the rule or portion of the rule objected to is not effective until the day after final adjournment of the regular session of the legislature that begins after the notice proposing the rule was published by the secretary of state, unless, following the committee's objection under 2-4-406(1):

(i) the committee withdraws its objection under 2-4-406 before the rule is adopted; or

(ii) the rule or portion of a rule objected to is adopted with changes that in the opinion of a majority of the committee members, as communicated in writing to the committee presiding officer and staff, make it comply with the committee's objection and concerns."

Section 6. Section 2-4-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-307. Omissions from ARM or register. (1) An agency may adopt by reference any model code, federal agency rule, rule of any agency of this state, or other similar publication if the publication of the model code, rule, or other publication would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient.

(2) The model code, rule, or other publication must be adopted by reference in a rule adopted under the rulemaking procedure required by this chapter. The rule must contain a citation to the material adopted by reference and a statement of the general subject matter of the omitted rule and must state where a copy of the omitted material may be obtained. Upon request of the secretary of state, a copy of the omitted material must be filed with the secretary of state.

(3) ~~No~~ A rule originally adopting by reference any model code or rule provided for in subsection (1) ~~of this section~~ may not adopt any later amendments or editions of the material adopted. Except as provided in subsection (5), each later amendment or edition may be adopted by reference only by following the rulemaking procedure required by this chapter.

(4) If requested by a three-fourths vote of the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee, an agency ~~must~~ shall immediately publish the full or partial text of any pertinent material adopted by reference under this section. The committee may not require the publication of copyrighted material. Publication of the text of a rule previously adopted does not affect the date of adoption of the rule, but publication of the text of a rule before publication of the notice of final adoption must be in the form of and is considered to be a new notice of proposed rulemaking.

(5) Whenever later amendments of federal regulations must be adopted to comply with federal law or to qualify for federal funding, only a notice of incorporation by reference of ~~such~~ the later amendments ~~shall~~ must be filed in the ~~Montana Administrative Register~~ register. This notice ~~shall~~ must contain the information required by subsection (2) ~~of this section~~ and ~~shall~~ must state the effective date of ~~such~~ the incorporation. The effective date may be no sooner than 30 days after the date upon which the notice is published unless the 30 days causes a delay that jeopardizes compliance with federal law or qualification for federal funding, in which event the effective date may be no sooner than the date of publication. A hearing is not required unless requested under 2-4-315 by either 10% or 25, whichever is less, of the persons who will be directly affected by the incorporation, by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association having not less than 25 members who will be directly affected. ~~No further~~ Further notice of adoption or preparation of a replacement page for the ~~Administrative Rules of Montana~~ ARM is not required.

(6) If a hearing is requested under subsection (5), the petition for hearing ~~shall~~ must contain a request for an amendment and may contain suggested language, reasons for an amendment, and any other information pertinent to the subject of the rule."

Section 7. Section 2-4-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-308. Adjective or interpretive rule — statement of implied authority and legal effect. (1) Each adjective or interpretive rule or portion of ~~such a~~ an adjective or interpretive rule to be adopted ~~after October 1, 1983,~~ under implied rulemaking authority ~~shall~~ must contain a statement in the historical notations of the rule that the rule is advisory only but may be a correct interpretation of the law. ~~Such~~ The statement must be placed in the ARM when the rule in question is ~~next~~ scheduled for reprinting.

(2) The appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee may file with the secretary of state, for publication with any rule or portion ~~thereof~~ of a rule that it considers to be adjective or interpretive, a statement indicating that it is the opinion of the appropriate administrative ~~code~~ rule review committee that the rule or portion ~~thereof~~ of a rule is adjective or interpretive and therefore advisory only. If the committee requests the statement to be published for an adopted rule not scheduled for reprinting in the ARM, the cost of publishing the statement in the ARM ~~shall~~ must be ~~borne~~ paid by the committee."

Section 8. Section 2-4-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-311. Publication and arrangement of ARM. (1) The secretary of state shall compile, index, arrange, rearrange, correct errors or inconsistencies without changing the meaning, intent, or effect of any rule, and publish in the appropriate format all rules filed pursuant to this chapter in the ARM. The secretary of state shall supplement, revise, and publish the ARM or any part ~~thereof~~ of the ARM as often as ~~he~~ the secretary of state considers necessary. ~~He~~ The secretary of state may include ~~such~~ editorial notes, cross-references, and other matter ~~as he and the administrative code committee consider~~ that the secretary of state considers desirable or advantageous. ~~He~~ The secretary of state shall publish supplements to the ARM at ~~such~~ the times and in ~~such~~ the form ~~as he~~ that the secretary of state considers appropriate.

(2) The ARM ~~shall~~ must be arranged, indexed, and printed or duplicated in ~~such~~ a manner ~~as to permit~~ that permits separate publication of portions ~~thereof~~ relating to individual agencies. An agency may make arrangements with the secretary of state for the printing of as many copies of ~~such~~ the separate publications as it may require. The cost of any ~~such~~ separate publications, determined in accordance with 2-4-313(4), ~~shall~~ must be paid by the agency."

Section 9. Section 2-4-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-312. Publication and arrangement of register. (1) The secretary of state shall publish in the register all notices, rules, and interpretations filed with ~~him~~ the secretary of state at least once a month ~~or as directed by the administrative code committee~~ but not more often than twice a month.

(2) ~~He~~ The secretary of state shall send the register without charge to each person listed in 2-4-313(1) and to each member of the legislature requesting the ~~same~~ register. ~~He~~ The secretary of state shall send the register to any other person who pays a subscription fee ~~which he shall fix in accordance with~~ established as provided in 2-4-313(4).

(3) The register must contain three sections, a rules section, a notice section, and an interpretation section, as follows:

(a) The rules section of the register must contain all rules filed since the compilation and publication of the preceding issue of the register, together with the concise statement of reasons required under 2-4-305(1).

Each return must set forth those facts that the department considers necessary for the proper enforcement of this chapter. There must be annexed to the return the affidavit or affirmation of the persons making the return to the effect that the statements contained in the return are true. (2) An automatic 4-month extension of time for filing a return is allowed, provided that:

If the application is made in writing, it must include substantially the same information as is required on the department's forms~~ *the taxpayer has applied with the internal revenue service for a 4-month extension of time for filing the taxpayer's federal individual income tax return for the same tax year. AN ACT REMOVING TERMINATION PROVISIONS RELATED TO FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS FROM THE CHILD SUPPORT LAWS; REQUIRING, AS MANDATED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, A SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER ON A DEATH CERTIFICATE UNLESS THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT EXEMPTS MONTANA FROM THAT REQUIREMENT; AMENDING SECTION 50-15-403, MCA, AND SECTION 104, CHAPTER 552, LAWS OF 1997; AND PROVIDING EFFECTIVE DATES.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 104, Chapter 552, Laws of 1997, is amended to read:

"Section 104. Contingent termination — request for federal exemptions. (1) [Sections 9, 11, 22 through 24, ~~93,~~ and 95] and the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] terminate on the date of the suspension if the federal government suspends federal payments to this state for this state's child support enforcement program and for this state's program relating to temporary assistance to needy families because of this state's failure to enact law as required by the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

(2) [Sections 9, 11, 22 through 24, ~~93,~~ and 95] and the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] terminate on the date that a final decision is rendered in federal court invalidating the child support provisions of the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

(3) If the director of the department of public health and human services certifies to the governor and the secretary of state in writing that one of the following provisions is no longer required by federal law because of repeal of or amendment to federal statutes that require that provision, the provision terminates on the date the certification takes effect:

(a) [section 9];

(c) [sections 22 through 24];

(d) ~~[section 93];~~

~~(f)~~ (e) the bracketed provisions in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89].

~~(4) If the director of the department of public health and human services certifies to the governor and the secretary of state in writing that the federal government has granted this state an exemption from one of the following provisions, the provision terminates on the date the exemption takes effect:~~

~~(b) [section 11];~~

~~(c) [sections 22 through 24];~~

~~(d) [section 93];~~

~~(e) [section 95];~~

~~(f) the bracketed provisions in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89].~~

~~(5) (a) The department of public health and human services shall do everything reasonably within its power to obtain, as soon as possible, federal government exemptions from the provisions listed in subsection (4).~~

~~(b) Because section 395(c) of the federal Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA) allows a grace period for states to amend their constitutions in order to comply with PRWORA and because the Montana legislature believes that the section of PRWORA prohibiting a jury trial in a paternity proceeding violates Article II, section 26, of the Montana constitution and is therefore rejected, the department of public health and human services shall seek a federal government exemption from the jury trial prohibition in PRWORA as the first exemption it seeks under subsection (5)(a).~~

~~(6) [Sections 9, 11, 22 through 24, 93, and 95] and the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] terminate July 1, 1999.~~

~~(7)~~(4) If the bracketed language in [sections 1 through 3, 10, 25, 45, and 89] terminates, the code commissioner is instructed to renumber subsections, adjust internal references, and correct grammar and arrangement."

The porson in charge of disposition shall obtain the completed certification of the cause of death from the physician or the coroner and shall, within the time that the department may prescribe by rule, file the death or fetal death certificate with the local registrar in the registration area where the death occurred or, if the place of death is unknown, where the dead body was discovered.

(3) If a dead body is found in this state but the place of death is unknown, the place where the body is found must be shown as the place of death on the death certificate. If the date of death is unknown, then the approximate date must be entered on the certificate. If the date cannot be approximated, the date that the body was found must be entered as the date of death, and the certificate must indicate that fact.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 88 1999

(4) When a death occurs in a moving vehicle, as defined in 45-2-101, in the United States and the body is first removed from the vehicle in this state, the death must be registered in this state and the place where the body is first removed is considered the place of death. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 15-1-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-1-211. Uniform ~~tax~~ dispute review procedure — notice — appeal. (1) The department of revenue shall provide a uniform ~~tax~~ review procedure for all ~~taxpayers~~ persons or other entities, except as provided in subsection (1)(a).

(a) The ~~tax~~ department's dispute review procedure ~~described in this section~~ must be adopted by administrative rule and applies to all ~~taxes~~ matters administered by the department and to all issues arising from the administration of ~~taxes~~ the department, except inheritance taxes, estate taxes, property taxes, and the issue of whether an employer-employee relationship existed between the ~~taxpayer~~ person or other entity and individuals subjecting the ~~taxpayer~~ person or other entity to the requirements of chapter 30, part 2, or whether the employment relationship was that of an independent contractor. ~~The procedure applies to any revised assessment of centrally assessed property taxed pursuant to chapter 23.~~ The procedure applies to assessments of centrally assessed property taxed pursuant to chapter 23.

(b) (i) The term ~~"taxpayers"~~ "other entity", as used in this section, includes all ~~persons determined by the department to have a potential tax liability~~ businesses, corporations, and similar enterprises.

(ii) The term "person" as used in this section includes all individuals.

~~(2) (a) If the department determines that a request for a refund should be denied in whole or part, it shall notify the taxpayer of the determination. If the department determines that a person has failed to pay a sufficient tax, interest, or penalty, it shall provide the taxpayer with notice. The notice stops the running of any applicable statute of limitations regarding the assessment of the tax.~~

~~(b) A notice under this section must clearly state:~~

~~(i) the reasons for the department's determination that a refund is not due or that tax plus interest and penalty, if any, are due;~~

~~(ii) the taxpayer's right to a review by the department, the taxpayer's right to appeal after a final department decision, and the taxpayer's right to a review of determinations by the department of labor and industry and board of labor appeals of whether an employer-employee relationship existed between the taxpayer and certain individuals or whether the employment relationship was that of an independent contractor;~~

~~(iii) failure to notify the department within 30 days will result in a forfeiture of the taxpayer's right to contest the department's determination under this section or to file an appeal with the state tax appeal board;~~

~~(vi) that the notice stops the running of the statute of limitations regarding the assessment of the tax.~~

(2) (a) Persons or other entities having a dispute with the department have the right to have the dispute resolved by appropriate means, including consideration of alternative dispute resolution procedures such as mediation.

(b) The department shall establish a dispute resolution office to resolve disputes between the department and persons or other entities.

(c) Disputes must be resolved by a final department decision within 180 days of the referral to the dispute resolution office, unless extended by mutual consent of the parties. If a final department decision is not issued within the required time period, the remedy is an appeal to the appropriate forum as provided by law.

~~(3)(a) A taxpayer shall notify the department, in writing, that the taxpayer objects to the determination within 30 days from the date that the notice is mailed. The notification by the taxpayer is not required to specify the reasons for the disagreement or be in any particular form unless the taxpayer is objecting to a determination that an employer-employee relationship existed between the taxpayer and individuals, subjecting the taxpayer to the requirements of chapter 30, part 2. If the taxpayer does not notify the department within 30 days:~~

~~(i) an assessment becomes final and the assessed tax, plus any interest and penalty, must be paid;~~

~~(ii) the taxpayer waives any further right to review under this section or to appeal to the state tax appeal board; and~~

~~(iii) a warrant for distraint may be issued without further opportunity to be heard on the assessment.~~

~~(b) (i) A taxpayer who notifies the department pursuant to subsection (3)(a) that the taxpayer disagrees with a tax assessment shall present the objections, the reasons for the objections, and any other information to the administrator of the division that administers the tax or to the administrator's designee within 60 days after the notice referred to in subsection (3)(a) is mailed. The reasons for objections may be provided in writing, by telephone, or, if requested by the taxpayer, at an informal conference. An informal conference is not subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.~~

~~(ii) An objection received by the department pursuant to subsection (3)(a) stating that the taxpayer disagrees with the department's determination that an employer-employee relationship existed between the taxpayer and certain individuals, subjecting the taxpayer to the requirements of chapter 30, part 2, must be referred to the department of labor and industry for appeal procedures pursuant to 39-51-2402 and 39-51-2410.~~

~~(c) Within 60 days after the taxpayer has presented the taxpayer's objections, as provided in subsection (3)(b), the administrator or a designee shall issue a written decision addressing the taxpayer's objections and describing the reasons for the determination. The administrator's decision must also clearly set forth the taxpayer's review rights. The administrator's decision must be provided to the taxpayer and the director of revenue.~~

(3) (a) The department shall provide written notice to a person or other entity advising them of a dispute over matters administered by the department.

(b) The person or other entity shall have the opportunity to resolve the dispute with the department employee who is responsible for the notice, as indicated on the notice.

(c) If the dispute cannot be resolved, either the department or the other party may refer the dispute to the dispute resolution office.

(d) The notice must advise the person or other entity of their opportunity to resolve the dispute with the person responsible for the notice and their right to refer the dispute to the dispute resolution office.

(4) Written notice must be sent to the persons or other entities involved in a dispute with the department indicating that the matter has been referred to the dispute resolution office. The written notice must include:

If an objection is not made within 30 days, the administrator's decision and any assessment become final. By failing to object, the taxpayer waives any further right to review or appeal and a warrant for distraint may be issued without further opportunity to be heard on the assessment.~~

~~(b) Except as provided in subsection (6), a taxpayer who objects to the administrator's decision pursuant to subsection (4)(a) shall present the taxpayer's objections, the reasons for the objections, and any other information to the director of revenue or the director's designee within 60 days after the notice referred to in subsection (4)(a) is mailed. The director or the designee may consider written information, hold a telephone conference, or conduct an informal conference, none of which are subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.~~

~~(c) Within 60 days after the taxpayer has presented the objections, the director or the designee shall issue a written decision addressing the objections~~

~~and describing the reasons for the decision. The director's decision is the final decision and assessment of the department.~~

~~(5) The taxpayer shall pay the assessment within 30 days after being mailed a copy of the final decision and assessment unless an appeal is filed with the state tax appeal board. If an appeal with the board is filed within 30 days after the final decision is mailed, payment is not due until final resolution by the board or, if further appeals are filed, by the appropriate court. However, any interest required by law must continue to accrue.~~

~~(6) (a) A taxpayer who validly objects to the administrator's decision may elect to file an appeal with the state tax appeal board. The appeal must be filed within 30 days after mailing an objection to the administrator's decision. If an appeal is filed, the administrator's decision is the final decision of the department.~~

~~(b) If the director notifies the board within 30 days after an appeal is filed that the director has not had an opportunity to review the administrator's decision and the director believes that a review may be helpful in resolving the controversy, the board shall stay the appeal for a time that the board considers reasonable, not to exceed 90 days except by the mutual consent of both parties. The taxpayer shall provide the taxpayer's objections and reasons for the objections to the director so that the director or the director's designee may review the controversy and issue a decision within the period of the stay granted by the board. If the taxpayer is dissatisfied with the director's decision, the stay must be lifted and the appeal resumed.~~

~~(7) The time limits in this section must be applied and interpreted as provided in Rule 6 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, including additional time for mailing. Any time limit may be extended by mutual consent of the department and the taxpayer. The department shall consent to all reasonable requests for extension of deadlines.~~

~~(8) (a)~~(6) (a) The director of revenue or the director's designee is authorized to enter into an agreement with ~~any taxpayer~~ a person or other entity relating ~~to the taxpayer's liability with respect~~ to a ~~tax~~ matter administered hy the department ~~for any taxable period~~.

(b) An agreement under the provisions of subsection ~~(8)(a)~~ (4) is final and conclusive, and, except upon a showing of fraud, malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact:

(i) the agreement may not be reopened as to matters agreed upon or be modified by any officer, employee, or agent of this state; and

The court shall consolidate all actions brought under subsection (1) that challenge the same tax. The decision of the court applies to all similarly situated taxpayers, except those taxpayers who are excluded under 15-1-407.

AN ACT LIMITING THE REQUIREMENT THAT THE LEGISLATURE AFFIRM CERTAIN LARGE-SCALE CHANGES OF WATER RIGHT AUTHORIZATION TO ONLY THOSE CHANGES THAT INVOLVE OUT-OF-STATE TRANSPORTATION AND USE; AMENDING SECTION 85-2-402, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-2-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-402. (Temporary) Changes in appropriation rights. (1) The right to make a change subject to the provisions of this section in an existing water right, a permit, or a state water reservation is recognized and confirmed. In a change proceeding under this section, there is no presumption that an applicant for a change in appropriation right cannot establish lack of adverse effect prior to the adjudication of other rights in the source of supply pursuant to this chapter. An appropriator may not make a chango in an appropriation right except, as permitted under this section, by applying for and receiving the approval of the department or, if applicable, of the legislature. An applicant shall submit a correct and complete application.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (4) through (6), the department shall approve a change in appropriation right if the appropriator proves by a preponderance of evidence that the following criteria are met:

(a) The proposed change in appropriation right will not adversely affect the use of the existing water rights of other persons or other perfected or planned uses or developments for which a permit or certificate has heen issued or for which a state water reservation has been issued under part 3.

(b) Except for a lease authorization pursuant to 85-2-436, a temporary change authorization for instream use to benefit the fishery resource pursuant to 85-2-408, or water use pursuant to 85-2-439 when authorization does not require appropriation works, the proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate.

(c) The proposed use of water is a beneficial use.

(d) Except for a lease authorization pursuant to 85-2-436 or a temporary change authorization pursuant to 85-2-408 or 85-2-439 for instream flow to benefit the fishery resource, the applicant has a possessory interest, or the written consent of the person with the possessory interest, in the property where the water is to be put to beneficial use.

(e) If the change in appropriation rigbt involves salvaged water, the proposed water-saving methods will salvage at least the amount of water asserted hy the applicant.

(f) The water quality of an appropriator will not he adversely affected.

(g) The ability of a discharge permitholder to satisfy effluent limitations of a permit issued in accordance with Title 75, chapter 5, part 4, will not be adversely affected.

(3) The applicant is required to prove that the criteria in subsections (2)(f) and (2)(g) have been met only if a valid objection is filed. A valid objection must contain substantial credible information establishing to the satisfaction of the department that the criteria in subsection (2)(f) or (2)(g), as applicable, may not be met.

(4) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use of an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the appropriator proves by a preponderance of evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (2) are met; and

(h) the proposed change is a reasonable use. A finding of reasonable use must be based on a consideration of:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands for water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal wator supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

(iii) the effects on the quantity and quality of wator for existing uses in the source of supply;

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 119 1999

(iv) the availability and feasibility of using low-quality water for the purpose for which application has been made;

(v) the effects on private property rights by any creation of or contribution to saline seep; and

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(5) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use for a diversion that results in 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water being consumed unless:

(a) the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence and the department finds that the criteria in subsections (2) and (4) are met; and

(b) for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for out-of-state use, the department then petitions the legislature and the legislature affirms the decision of the department after one or more public hearings.

(6) The state of Montana has long recognized the importance of conserving its public waters and the necessity to maintain adequate water supplies for the state's water requirements, including requirements for federal non-Indian and Indian reserved water rights held by the United States for federal reserved lands and in trust for the various Indian tribes within the state's boundaries. Although the state of Montana also recognizes that, under appropriate conditions, the out-of-state transportation and use of its public waters are not in conflict with the public welfare of its citizens or the conservation of its waters, the following criteria must be met before out-of-state use may occur:

(a) The department and, if applicable, the legislature may not approve a change in appropriation right for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for use outside the state unless the appropriator proves by clear and convincing evidence and, if applicable, the legislature approves after one or more public hearings that:

(i) depending on the volume of water diverted or consumed, the applicable criteria and procedures of subsection (2) or (4) are met;

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(iii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(b) In determining whether the appropriator has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (6)(a)(ii) and (6)(a)(iii) will be met, the department and, if applicable, the legislature shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the proposed change in appropriation might feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 120 1999

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(c) When applying for a change in appropriation right to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation and use of water.

(7) For any application for a change in appropriation right involving 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water, the department shall give notice of the proposed change in accordance with 85-2-307 and shall hold one or more hearings in accordance with 85-2-309 prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. The department shall provide notice and may hold one or more hearings upon any other proposed change if it determines that a the proposed change might adversely affect the rights of other persons.

(8) The department or the legislature, if applicable, may approve a change subject to terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations as it considers necessary to satisfy the criteria of this section, including limitations on the time for completion of the change. The department may extend time limits specified in the change approval under the applicable criteria and procedures of 85-2-312(3).

(9) Upon actual application of water to the proposed beneficial use within the time allowed, the appropriator shall notify the department that the appropriation has been completed. The notification must contain a certified statement by a person with experience in the design, construction, or operation of appropriation works describing how the appropriation was completed.

(10) If a change is not completed as approved by the department or legislature or if the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations of the change approval are not complied with, the department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, require the appropriator to show cause why the change approval should not be modified or revoked. If the appropriator fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the change approval.

(11) The original of a change approval issued by the department must be sent to the applicant, and a duplicate must be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(12) A person holding an issued permit or change approval that has not been perfected may change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage by filing an application for change pursuant to this section.

(13) A change in appropriation right contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. An officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may not knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner an unauthorized change in appropriation right. A person or corporation may not, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to change an appropriation right except in accordance with this section.

(14) The department may adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section. (Terminates June 30, 1999—sec. 4, Ch. 740, L. 1991.)

85-2-402. (Effective July 1, 1999) Changes in appropriation rights. (e) If the change in appropriation right involves salvaged water, the proposed water-saving methods will salvage at least the amount of water asserted by the applicant.

(f) The water quality of an appropriator will not be adversely affected.

(g) The ability of a discharge permitholder to satisfy effluent limitations of a permit issued in accordance with Title 75, chapter 5, part 4, will not be adversely affected.

(3) The applicant is required to prove that the criteria in subsections (2)(f) and (2)(g) have been met only if a valid objection is filed. A valid objection must contain substantial credible information establishing to the satisfaction of the department that the criteria in subsection (2)(f) or (2)(g), as applicable, may not be met.

(4) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use of an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the appropriator proves by a preponderance of evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (2) are met; and

(b) the proposed change is a reasonable use. A finding of reasonable use must be based on a consideration of:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands for water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(5) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use for a diversion that results in 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water being consumed unless:

(a) the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence and the department finds that the criteria in subsections (2) and (4) are met; and

(b) for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for out-of-state use, the department then petitions the legislature and the legislature affirms tbe decision of the department after one or more public bearings.

(13) A change in appropriation right contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. An officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may not knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner an unauthorized change in appropriation right. A person or corporation may not, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to change an appropriation right except in accordance with this section.

(14) The department may adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section. (Terminates June 30, 2005—sec. 6, Ch. 322, L. 1995.)

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 124 1999

85-2-402. (Effective July 1, 2005) Changes in appropriation rights. (1) The right to make a change subject to the provisions of this section in an existing water right, a permit, or a state water reservation is recognized and confirmed. In a change proceeding under this section, there is no presumption that an applicant for a change in appropriation right cannot establish lack of adverse effect prior to the adjudication of other rights in the source of supply pursuant to this chapter. An appropriator may not make a change in an appropriation right except, as permitted under this section, by applying for and receiving the approval of the department or, if applicable, of the legislature. An applicant shall submit a correct and complete application.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (4) through (6), the department shall approve a change in appropriation right if the appropriator proves by a preponderance of evidence that the following criteria are met:

(a) The proposed change in appropriation right will not adversely affect the use of the existing water rights of other persons or other perfected or planned uses or developments for which a permit or certificate has been issued or for which a state water reservation has been issued under part 3.

(b) The proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate.

(c) The propesed use of water is a beneficial use.

(d) The applicant has a possessory interest, or the written consent of the person with the possessory interest, in the property where the water is to be put to beneficial use.

(e) If the change in appropriation right involves salvaged water, the proposed water-saving methods will salvage at least the amount of water asserted by the applicant.

(f) The water quality of an appropriator will not be adversely affected.

(g) The ability of a discharge permitholder to satisfy effluent limitations of a permit issued in accordance with Title 75, chapter 5, part 4, will not be adversely affected.

(3) The applicant is required to prove that the criteria in subsections (2)(f) and (2)(g) have been met only if a valid objection is filed. A valid objection must contain substantial credible information establishing to the satisfaction of the department that the criteria in subsection (2)(f) or (2)(g), as applicable, may not be met.

(4) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use of an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the appropriator proves by a preponderance of evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (2) are met;

(b) the propesed change is a reasonable use. A finding of reasonable use must be based on a consideration of:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands for water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 125 1999

(iii) the effects on the quantity and quality of water for existing uses in the source of supply;

(iv) the availability and feasibility of using low-quality water for the purpose for which application has been made;

(v) the effects on private property rights by any creation of or contribution to saline seep; and

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(5) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use for a diversion that results in 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water being consumed unless:

(a) the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence and the department finds that the criteria in subsections (2) and (4) are met; and

(b) for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for out-of-state use, the department then petitions the legislature and the legislature affirms the decision of the department after one or more public hearings.

(6) The state of Montana has long recognized the importance of conserving its public waters and the necessity to maintain adequate water supplies for the state's water requirements, including requirements for reserved water rights held by the United States for federal reserved lands and in trust for the various Indian tribes within the state's boundaries. Although the state of Montana also recognizes that, under appropriate conditions, the out-of-state transportation and use of its public waters are not in conflict with the public welfare of its citizens or the conservation of its waters, the following criteria must be met before out-of-state use may occur:

(a) The department and, if applicable, the legislature may not approve a change in appropriation right for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for use outside the state unless the appropriator proves by clear and convincing evidence and, if applicable, the legislature approves after one or more public hearings that:

(i) depending on the volume of water diverted or consumed, the applicable criteria and procedures of subsection (2) or (4) are met;

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(iii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(b) In determining whether the appropriator has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (6)(a)(ii) and (6)(a)(iii) will be met, the department and, if applicable, the legislature shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the proposed change in appropriation might feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 126 1999

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(c) When applying for a change in appropriation right to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation and use of water.

(7) For any application for a change in appropriation right involving 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water, the department shall give notice of the proposed change in accordance with 85-2-307 and shall hold one or more hearings in accordance with 85-2-309 prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. The department shall provide notice and may hold one or more hearings upon any other proposed change if it determines that ~~such a~~ the proposed change might adversely affect the rights of other persons.

(8) The department or the legislature, if applicable, may approve a change subject to ~~such~~ the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations ~~as~~ that it considers necessary to satisfy the criteria of this section, including limitations on the time for completion of the change. The department may extend time limits specified in the change approval under the applicable criteria and procedures of 85-2-312(3).

(9) Upon actual application of water to the proposed beneficial use within the time allowed, the appropriator shall notify the department that the appropriation has been completed. The notification must contain a certified statement by a person with experience in the design, construction, or operation of appropriation works describing how the appropriation was completed.

(10) If a change is not completed as approved by the department or legislature or if the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations of the change approval are not complied with, the department may, after notice and oppertunity for hearing, require the appropriator to show cause why the change approval should not be modified or revoked. If the appropriator fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the change approval.

(11) The original of a change approval issued by the department must be sent to the applicant, and a duplicate must be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(12) A person holding an issued permit or change approval that has not been perfected may change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage by filing an application for change pursuant to this section.

(13) A change in appropriation right contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. An officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may not knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner an unauthorized change in appropriation right. A person or corporation may not, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to change an appropriation right except in accordance with this section.

(14) The department may adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section."

Section 4. Section 61-8-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-309. Establishment of special speed zones. (1) (a) If the commission determines upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that a speed limit set by 61-8-303 is greater or less than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at an intersection, curve, or dangerous location~~, or any other part~~ on a segment of a highway less than 50 miles in length under its jurisdiction, the commission may set a reasonable and safe special speed limit at that location.

(c) (i) A local authority may request at its own expense that an engineering and traffic investigation be completed by a licensed professional engineer selected from a list compiled and approved by a committee as provided in subsection (1)(c)(ii).

Section 3. Stripper-well payments — reappropriation — definition — priority. (1) There is reappropriated from the stripper-well payments contained in the federal special revenue fund to the department of environmental quality $100,000 to fulfill duties authorized by 90-4-605 and 90-4-607. Department of Military Affairs

Maintenance Shop Building, Helena

(2) In addition to the energy conservation projects listed in subsection (1), the department of environmental quality may expend funds appropriated under [section 6] to respond to lost energy saving opportunities. This includes coordination of energy improvement projects with the long-range building program's capital improvement projects.

(3) For purposes of this section, a "lost energy saving opportunity" means an opportunity to improve energy use that would provide significant energy and cost savings to the state and that will be technically infeasible or uneconomical if the department of environmental quality is delayed in providing the necessary funds until specific legislative approval can be obtained.

(4) If the costs of the projects authorized in subsections (1) and (2) are substantially below the bond amount authorized in [section 6], the department of environmental quality may fund projects that otherwise would be proposed as part of the state building energy conservation package for fiscal years 2002 and 2003.

Section 6. Bond authorization — appropriation of bond proceeds. (1) The board of examiners may, pursuant to 90-4-611, issue and sell bonds of the state in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $3 million for fiscal years 2000 and 2001 for the projects approved in [section 5] and to fulfill duties authorized by 90-4-605 and 90-4-607, as provided in [section 4]. The bonds are general obligations for which the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state are pledged for payment of the principal and interest on the bonds. The bonds must be issued as provided by Title 17, chapter 5, part 8.

(2) The proceeds of the bonds, other than any premiums and accrued interest received, must be deposited in the energy conservation program account established by 90-4-612. Premiums and accrued interest must be deposited in the debt service fund established in 17-2-102. Proceeds of bonds deposited in the energy conservation program account may be used to pay the costs of issuing the bonds, to fulfill duties authorized by 90-4-605 and 90-4-607, and to fund the projects approved in [section 5]. For purposes of 17-5-803 and 17-5-804, the energy conservation program account constitutes a capital projects account. Section 25. Section 15-1-112, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-1-112. Business equipment tax rate reduction reimbursement to local government taxing jurisdictions. (1) On or before January 1, 1996, for the reduction in payment under subsection (4) and by June 1 of 1996, 1997, and 1998~~,~~ for all other reimbursements in this section, the department of revenue shall determine a reimbursement amount associated with reducing the tax rate in 15-6-138 and provide that information to each county treasurer. The reimbursement amount must be determined for each local government taxing jurisdiction that levied mills on the taxable value of property described in 15-6-138 in the corresponding tax year. However, the reimbursement does not apply to property described in 15-6-138 that has a reduced tax rate under 15-24-1402.

(2) (a) The reimbursement amount to be used as the basis for the payment reduction under subsection (4) is the product of multiplying the tax year 1995 taxable value of property described in 15-6-138 for each local government taxing jurisdiction hy tbe tax year 1995 mill levy for the jurisdiction and then multiplying by 1/9th.

(b) (i) The reimbursement amount for each local government taxing jurisdiction for tax year 1996 is the amount determined under subsection (2)(a) unless the tax year 1996 market value of property described in 15-6-138, for the particular local government taxing jurisdiction, is more than the tax year 1995 market value for property described in 15-6-138 in the same jurisdiction.

(ii) If the tax year 1996 market value is greater than the tax year 1995 market value for a particular jurisdiction, then the reimbursement amount for tax year 1996 is the result of subtracting the simulated 1996 tax from the 1995 tax. The 1995 tax is the tax for the particular jurisdiction, determined hy multiplying the actual taxable valuation of property described in 15-6-138, for tax year 1995, by the tax year 1995 mill levy for the jurisdiction. The simulated 1996 tax for the particular jurisdiction is the actual tax year 1996 taxable value of property described in 15-6-138 multiplied hy the tax year 1995 mill levy for the particular jurisdiction. If the simulated 1996 tax is greater than the 1995 tax, the reimbursement amount is zero.

(c) (i) The reimbursement amount for each local government taxing jurisdiction for tax year 1997 is the amount determined under subsection (2)(a) multiplied by two unless the tax year 1997 market value of property described in 15-6-138, for the particular local government taxing jurisdiction, is more than the tax year 1995 market value for property described in 15-6-138 in the same jurisdiction.

(ii) If the tax year 1997 market value is greater than the tax year 1995 market value for a particular jurisdiction, then the reimbursement amount for tax year 1997 is the result of subtracting the simulated 1997 tax from the 1995 tax. The 1995 tax is the tax for the particular jurisdiction, determined by multiplying the actual taxable valuation of property described in 15-6-138, for tax year 1995, hy the tax year 1995 mill levy for the jurisdiction. The simulated 1997 tax for the particular jurisdiction is the actual tax year 1997 taxable value of property described in 15-6-138 multiplied by the tax year 1995 mill levy for the particular jurisdiction. If the simulated 1997 tax is greater than the 1995 tax, the reimhursement amount is zero.

(d) (i) The reimbursement amount for each local government taxing jurisdiction for tax year 1998 is the amount determined under subsection (2)(a) multiplied by three unless the tax year 1998 market value of property described in 15-6-138, for the particular local government taxing jurisdiction, is more than the tax year 1995 market value for property described in 15-6-138 in the same jurisdiction.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 161 1999

(ii) If the tax year 1998 market value is greater than the tax year 1995 market value for a particular jurisdiction, then the reimbursement amount for tax year 1998 is the result of subtracting the simulated 1998 tax from the 1995 tax. The 1995 tax is the tax for the particular jurisdiction, determined by multiplying the actual taxable valuation of property described in 15-6-138, for tax year 1995, by the tax year 1995 mill levy for the jurisdiction. The simulated 1998 tax for the particular jurisdiction is the actual tax year 1998 taxable value of property described in 15-6-138 multiplied by the tax year 1995 mill levy for the particular jurisdiction. If the simulated 1998 tax is greater than the 1995 tax, the reimbursement amount is zero.

(3) (a) For purposes of this section, "local government taxing jurisdiction" means a local government rather than a state taxing jurisdiction that levied mills against property described in 15-6-138, including county governments, incorporated city and town governments, consolidated county and city governments, tax increment financing districts, local elementary and high school districts, local community college districts, miscellaneous districts, and special districts. The term includes countywide mills levied for equalization of school retirement or transportation.

(b) The term does not include county or state school equalization levies provided for in 20-9-331, 20-9-333, and 20-9-360 ~~or the university levy provided for in 15-10-106~~. It also does not include any state levy for welfare programs provided for in 53-2-813.

(c) Each tax increment financing district must receive the benefit of the state mill on the incremental taxable value of the district.

(4) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in June of 1996 by an amount equal to 38% of the reimbursement amount determined under subsection (2)(a) for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county.

(5) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in December of 1996 by an amount equal to 31% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1996 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(6) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in June of 1997 by an amount equal to 31% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1996 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county and by an amount equal to 38% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1997 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(7) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in December of 1997 by an amount equal to 31% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1997 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(8) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in June of 1998 by an amount equal to 31% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1997 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county and by an amount equal to 38% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1998 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(9) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in December of 1998 by an amount equal to 31% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1998 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(10) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in June of 1999 by an amount equal to 69% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1998 for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsectien (2).

(11) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment te the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in December of the years 1999 through 2007 by an amount equal to 31% of the reimbursement amount determined in subsection (13) for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(12) County treasurers shall reduce the county payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in June of the years 2000 through 2008 by an amount equal to 69% of the reimbursement amount determined in subsection (13) for all of the local government taxing jurisdictions in the county, as determined by the department under subsection (2).

(13) (a) The reimbursement amount for tax year 1999 and each subsequent tax year for 9 years must be progressively reduced each year by 10% of the reimbursement amount for tax year 1999, according to the following schedule:

Tax Year	Percentago of 1999 Reimbursement Amount
1999	90
2000	80
2001	70
2002	60
2003	50
2004	40
2005	30
2006	20
2007	10
2008 and following years	0

(b) The reimbursement amount for each tax year must be the basis for reducing the amount remitted to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 in December of the same year and June of the following year.

(14) The county treasurer shall use the funds from the reduced payment to the state for the levy imposed under 20-9-360 to reimburse each local government taxing jurisdiction in the amount determined by the department under subsection (2). The reimbursement must be distributed to funds within local governmnent taxing jurisdictions in the same manner as taxes on property described in 15-6-138 are distributed. The reimbursement in June must be distributed based on the prior year's mill levy, and the reimbursement in December must be based on the current year's mill levy.

(15) Each local government taxing jurisdiction receiving reimbursements shall consider the amount of reimbursement that will be received and lower the mill levy otherwise necessary to fund the budget by the amount that would otherwise have to be raised by the mill levy.

(16) A local government taxing jurisdiction that ceases to exist after October 1, 1995, will no longer be considered for revenue loss or reimbursement purposes. A local government taxing jurisdiction that is created after January 1, 1996, will not be considered for revenue loss or reimbursement purposes. If a local government taxing jurisdiction that existed prior to January of 1996 is split between two or more taxing jurisdictions or is annexed to or is consolidated with another taxing jurisdiction, the department shall determine how much of the revenue loss and reimbursement is attributed to the new jurisdictions."

Section 43. Section 17-1-505, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-1-505. Review of dedicated revenue provisions. (1) Each interim, the legislative finance committee shall review each dedicated revenue provision not exempted under subsection (4) and the principles of revenue dedication set forth in 17-1-507 to ensure that legislative policy is clearly stated. The committee shall also carry out the review prescribed by subsection (4).

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 178 1999

(2) The legislature recognizes that dedicated revenue provisions are subject to review by:

(a) the office of budget and program planning in the development and implementation of the executive budget and analysis of legislation;

(b) the legislative ~~finance~~ fiscal division in analyzing the executive budget;

(c) the legislative services division in drafting legislation;

(d) the legislative auditor in auditing agencies; and

(e) the department of administration in performing the functions provided for in 17-2-106 and 17-2-111.

(3) To avoid unnecessary use of dedicated revenue provisions, the entities listed in subsection (2) shall, in the course of current duties, consider the principles in 17-1-507 and the criteria listed in this subsection for each new or existing dedicated revenue provision. A dedicated revenue provision should not give a program or activity an unfair advantage for funding. The expenditures from a dedicated revenue provision must be based on requirements for meeting a legislatively established outcome. Statutorily mandated programs or activities funded through dedicated revenue provisions from general revenue sources must be reviewed to the same extent as programs or activities funded from the general fund. The use of a dedicated revenue provision may be justified if it satisfies one or more of the following:

(a) The program or activity funded provides direct benefits for those who pay the dedicated tax, fee, or assessment, and the tax, fee, or assessment is commensurate with the costs of the program or activity.

(b) The use of the dedicated revenue provision provides special information or other advantages that could not be obtained if the revenue were allocated to the general fund.

(c) The dedicated revenue provision provides program funding at a level equivalent to the expenditures established by the legislature.

(d) The dedicated revenue provision involves collection and allocation formulas that are appropriate to the present circumstances and current priorities in state government.

(e) The dedicated revenue provision does not impair the legislature's ability to scrutinize budgets, control expenditures, and establish priorities for state spending.

(f) The dedicated revenue provision results in an appropriate projected ending fund balance.

(g) The dedicated revenue provision fulfills a continuing, legislatively recognized need.

(h) The dedicated revenue provision does not result in accounting or auditing inefficiency.

(4) The committee shall establish procedures to facilitate a biennial review and evaluation of dedicated revenue provisions. If the review determines that the revenue dedication is constitutionally mandated, is for debt service, funds emergency services, or is a user fee that is designed to provide direct benefits for those who pay the dedicated tax, fee, or assessment in an amount commensurate with the benefits provided, the revenue dedication may be exempt from future review.

(5) Upon completion of the review, the committee shall report a summary of its findings to the legislature, including its recommendation of termination or extension, with or without modification, of the dedicated revenue provision. The summary must include the purpose of the revenue dedication, the source of funding, the activity funded, the number of personnel associated with the activity, and any balance in the dedicated revenue fund. The summary must state the reason why the revenue dedication is exempt from future review."

Section 44. Section 17-1-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-1-508. Review of statutory appropriations. (1) Each interim, the legislative finance committee shall review each statutory appropriation that is contained in a section listed in 17-7-502 and that is not exempted under subsection (6) of this section and shall review the guidelines set forth in subsection (4) to eliminate statutory appropriations that no longer fulfill a legislative need and to ensure that legislative policy is clearly stated concerning the use of statutory appropriations.

(2) Each biennium, the office of budget and program planning shall, in development of the executive budget, identify instances in which statutory appropriations in current law do not appear consistent with the guidelines set forth in subsection (4).

(3) As part of each agency audit, the legislative auditor shall review statutory appropriations to the agency and report instances in which they do not appear consistent with the guidelines set forth in subsection (4).

(4) The review of statutory appropriations must determine whether a statutory appropriation meets the requirements of ~~17-7-501~~ 17-7-502. A statutory appropriation from a continuing and reliable source of revenue may not be used to fund administrative costs. In reviewing and establishing statutory appropriations, the legislature shall consider the following guidelines. A statutory appropriation may be considered appropriate if:

(a) the fund or use requires an appropriation;

(b) the money is not from a continuing, reliable, and estimable source;

(c) the use of the appropriation or the expenditure occurrence is not predictable and reliable;

(d) the authority does not exist elsewhere;

(e) an alternative appropriation method is not available, practical, or effective;

(f) other than for emergency purposes, it does not appropriate money from the state general fund;

(g) the money is dedicated for a specific use;

(h) the legislature wishes the activity to be funded on a continual basis; and

(i) when feasible, an expenditure cap and sunset date are included.

(5) The office of budget and program planning shall prepare a fiscal note for each piece of legislation that proposes to create or amend a statutory appropriation. It shall, consistent with the guidelines in this section, review each of these pieces of legislation. Its findings concerning the statutory appropriation must be contained in the fiscal note accompanying that legislation.

(6) The legislative finance committee shall establish procedures to facilitate a biennial review and evaluation of statutory appropriations. If the review determines that continual review of a statutory appropriation is not necessary, the statutory appropriation may be exempt from future review."

The temporary support order must include a medical support order as required by 40-5-208.

(4) An action to establish a temporary support order must be commenced by serving a notice of temporary support obligation on the parent or parents. In addition to the statements required in subsection (2), the notice must include a statement that:

(a) a party may request a hearing to show that a temporary support obligation is inappropriate under the circumstances; and

(b) the temporary support order will terminate upon the entry of a final support order or an order of nonpaternity. If the final order is retroactive, any amount paid for a particular period under the temporary support order must be credited against the amounts due under the final order for the same period, but excess amounts may not be refunded. If an order of nonpaternity is issued or if the final support order states that periodic support obligation is not proper, the obligee shall refund to the obligor any improper amounts paid under the temporary support order, plus any costs the ~~obligee [obligor]~~ obligor incurs in recovering the amount to be refunded.

(7) If prior to service of a notice under this section, the department has sufficient financial information, the department's allegation of the obliger's monthly support responsibility, whether temporary or final, must be based on the child support guidelines established under 40-5-214. If the information is unknown to the department, the allegations of the parent's or parents' monthly support responsibility must be based on the greater of:

"40-5-273. Administrative review of child support orders — modifying orders. (1) A review application setting forth facts meeting any of the criteria for review of a child support order established in 40-5-272 must be scheduled for an administrative review. Unless the department determines under rules of the department that an in-person review is necessary, the review must be conducted by teleconferencing methods. A notice that an administrative review will be conducted must be served on the obliger and the obligee. The notice must include the following information as an exception to 2-4-601:

(a) a statement of the purpose, objectives, and possible consequences of the review;

(b) a statement of the right of the obligor and the obligoe to request the department to issue subpoenas compelling the appearance of witnesses and the production of documents for a hearing; and

(c) a requirement that the obligor and the obligoe provide the department with telephone numbers at which they and their witnesses may be contacted for the review.

(2) Tbe department may issue an order commanding the obligor or the obligee, or botb, to produce financial information. The order must be personally served with the notice that a review will be conducted. The department may also issue subpoenas ordering the parties to produce information in their possession about the obligor and the obligee that may be reasonably necessary for application of the guidelines. Any information so obtained by the department must be provided to the parties before a hearing.

(3) The requested modification of the order must be determined on the evidence submitted to the department under the following conditions:

(a) If an applicant other than the department fails to provide a telephone number for the review or fails to be at the number provided when telephoned for the review, the failure may be considered a withdrawal of the application.

(b) If a party other than the applicant fails to provide a telephone number for the review or fails to be at the number provided when telephoned for the review, the failure is considered to mean that the party does not oppose the modification.

(c) If the department is the applicant and if either the obligor or the obligee, or both, fails to provide a telephone number for the review or fails to be at the number provided when telephoned for the review, the failure may be considered an admission that the party or parties do not oppose the modification.

(4) (a) An order entered under the circumstances described in subsection (3)(a), (3)(b), or (3)(c) becomes final within 30 days of issuance unless a party provides the hearings officer an affidavit showing good cause for failure to provide a telephone number or failure to be available when telephoned.

(b) A proposed modification consent order or notice of proposed modification becomes final 30 days after issuance unless during that poriod a party files with the department a written request for further administrative proceedings.

(c) The department shall grant a modification hearing if it receives a timely written request by a party aggrieved by the department's determination. The hearing is subject to the provisions of this section relating to a review. The department may adopt rules regulating the fair and efficient conduct of the hearing. Unless the department determines under department rules that an in-person hearing is necessary, the hearing must be conducted by teleconferencing methods.

(5) A provision of law may not be construed to mean that an obligor or an obligee is a client of the department, and the department is not considered a party to the action.

(6) (a) In addition to the powers and duties provided by other law, the department shall, to ensure the equitable determination of a support obligation, during a review:

(i) question witnesses in a nonadversarial manner to elicit full disclosure of all pertinent facts;

(iii) apply the guidelines to the facts elicited from the review; and

(iv) inquire as to any circumstances that may require variance from the guidelines.

(b) If a party is represented by legal counsel, the department may allow the counsel to present that party's case.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 206 1999

(7) The department shall determine a support obligation in accordance with the guidelines and shall issue a modifying order. A stipulation by the parties in a proceeding under this section may not be contested before entry of the final department order. If the department determines that the difference between the existing support order and the amount determined under the guidelines is negligible under rules issued by the department, the modifying order may not change the amount of the support obligation. Even though the review may indicate that a modification of the support obligation is appropriate, the department may not modify the support order if the department determines, after the review, that to do so would not be in the best interests of the child under the rules issued by the department. An increase in child support is presumed to he in the best interests of the child unless, after a review, either the obliger or the obligee demonstrates it would not be in the best interests of the child. The modifying order may modify the underlying support order from the date of service of a notice that an administrative review will be conducted under this section and may modify the underlying order from the date found to be the date that the amount required for support decreased. The obligee may be ordered to repay the obliger for any support amount overpayment found to have been paid since the date that the amount required for support decreased. If the case is a IV-D case, the department sball, on request of the obliger, enforce the obligee's repayment of the overpaid amount using any procedure provided in this chapter for payment, enforcement, and collection of child support or a delinquency.

(8) The department shall consider whether or not health insurance for the child is available and shall include an appropriate requirement for the provision of the child's health insurance needs in a modifying order in accordance with part 8 of this chapter.

(9) In addition to complying with other requirements of law, the modifying order must include the following notices and warnings:

(a) that the obliger shall keep the department informed of the name and address of the obliger's current employer and information on health insurance available to the obliger through the obligor's employment or other group insurance; and

(b) tbat the modifying order is subject to future administrative review and modification by the department upon the request of the department or a party under 40-5-271 through 40-5-273 when the department is providing services under IV-D.

(10) An order entered under this section by the department is a final agency decision, subject to judicial review pursuant te the Montana Administrative Procedure Act, except as provided in 40-5-253. An order entered under this section must notify the parties that the order is subject to judicial review under Title 2, chapter 4, part 7. A final order entered under a stipulation of parties waives the stipulating parties' right to judicial review.

(11) The parties to the support order and the department when it is providing services under IV-D may enforce the support order or modify that order independently, as provided in 40-4-208 and 53-2-613~~(4)(d)~~(5)(d)."

(d) of the period of time within which the obligor is required to file a request for a hearing and that failure to file a request within the time limit will result in income withholding orders being served upon the payor for the amount stated in the notice; and

(e) in those cases in which withholding is being initiated at the request of an obligee without regard to whether there is ~~an arrearage~~ a delinquency as provided in 40-5-412(3), a statement that the obligor can require the obligee to appear and show proof that the obligor is not meeting the terms of the alternative arrangement.

(3) The notice must be served upon the obligor personally or by certified mail."

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 208 1999

(c) it is proven, to the satisfaction of the court, that the parent, if able, has not contributed to the support of the child for an aggregate period of 1 year before the filing of a petition for adoption;

(d) it is proven, to the satisfaction of the court, that the parent is in violation of a court order to support either the child that is the subject of the adoption proceedings or other children with the same birth mother;

(e) the parent has been found guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction of:

(i) that the parent has been convicted of a crime of violence or of violating a restraining or protective order; and

(ii) the facts of the crime or violation and the parent's behavior indicate that the parent is unfit to maintain a relationship of parent and child with the child;

(h) a finding is made for a parent who is given proper notice of hearing and is a respondent to the petition to terminate parental rights and:

(i) by a preponderance of the evidence, it is found that termination is in the best interests of the child; and

(ii) upon clear and convincing evidence, it is found that one of the following grounds exists:

(A) if the child is not in the legal and physical custody of the other parent, that the respondent is not able or willing to promptly assume legal and physical custody of the child and to pay for the child's support in accordance with the respondent's financial means;

(B) if the child is in the legal and physical custody of the other parent and a stepparent who is the prospective adoptive parent, that the respondent is not able or willing to promptly establish and maintain contact with the child and to pay for the child's support in accordance with the respondent's financial means;

Section 95. Section 75-10-743, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-743. (Temporary) Orphan share state special revenue account — reimbursement of claims — payment of department costs. (1) There is an orphan share account in the state special revenue fund established in 17-2-102 that is to be administered by the department. Money in the account is available to the department by appropriation and must be used to reimburse remedial action costs claimed pursuant to 75-10-742 through 75-10-752 and to pay costs incurred by the department in defending the orphan share.

(2) There must be deposited in the orphan share account:

(a) money allocated from the metalliferous mines license tax pursuant to 15-37-117;

(b) all penalties assessed pursuant to 75-10-750(12);

(c) funds received from the interest income of the resource indemnity trust fund pursuant to 15-38-202;

(d) funds allocated from the resource indemnity and ground water assessment tax proceeds provided for in 15-38-106;

(e) unencumbered funds remaining in the abandoned mines state special revenue account ~~provided in section 10, Chapter 584, Laws of 1995, as of [the termination date of section 10, Chapter 584, Laws of 1995, as may be amended]~~;

(f) interest income on the account;

(g) funds received from settlements pursuant to 75-10-719(7); and

(h) funds received from reimbursement of the department's orphan share defense costs pursuant to subsection (6).

(3) If the orphan share fund contains sufficient money, valid claims must be reimbursed subsequently in the order in which they were received by the department. If the orphan share fund does not contain sufficient money to reimburse claims for completed remedial actions, a reimbursement may not be made and the orphan share fund, the department, and the state are not liable for making any reimbursement for the costs. The department and the state are not liable for any penalties if the orphan share fund does not contain sufficient money to reimburse claims, and interest may not accrue on outstanding claims.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (8), claims may not be submitted and remedial action costs may not be reimbursed from the orphan share fund until all remedial actions, except for operation and maintenance, are completed at a facility.

(5) Reimbursement from the orphan share fund must be limited to actual documented remedial action costs incurred after the date of petition provided in 75-10-745. Reimbursement may not be made for attorney fees, legal costs, or operation and maintenance costs.

(6) (a) The department's costs incurred in defending the orphan share must be paid by the persons participating in the allocation under 75-10-742 through 75-10-752 in proportion to their allocated shares. The orphan share fund is responsible for a portion of the department's costs incurred in defending the orphan share in proportion to the orphan share's allocated share, as follows:

(i) If sufficient funds are available in the orphan share fund, the orphan share fund must pay the department's costs incurred in defending the orphan share in proportion to the share of liability allocated to the orphan share.

(ii) If sufficient funds are not available in the orphan share fund, persons participating in the allocation under 75-10-742 through 75-10-752 shall pay all the orphan share's allocated share of the department's costs incurred in defending the orphan share in proportion to each person's allocated share of liability.

(h) A person who pays the orphan share's proportional share of costs has a claim against the orphan share fund and must be reimbursed as provided in subsection (3).

(7) If any money remains in the orphan share fund after June 30, 2005, and after outstanding claims are paid, the money must be depesited in the general fund.

(8) If the lead liable person under 75-10-746 presents evidence to the department that the person cannot complete the remedial actions without partial reimbursement and that a delay in reimbursement will cause undue financial hardship on the person, the department may allow the submission of claims and may reimburse the claims prior to the completion of all remedial actions. A person is not eligible for early reimbursement unless the person is in substantial compliance with all department-approved remedial action plans.

(9) A person participating in the allocation process who received funds under the mixed funding pilot program provided for in sections 14 through 20, Chapter 584, Laws of 1995, may not claim or receive reimbursement from the orphan share fund for the amount of funds received under the mixed funding pilot program that are later attributed to the orphan share under the allocation process. ~~(11) In sentencing a nonviolent felony offender, the court shall first consider alternatives to imprisonment of the offender in the state prison, including placement of the offender in a community corrections facility or program or a prerelease center or prerelease program. In considering alternatives to imprisonment, the court shall examine the sentencing criteria contained in 46-18-225. "46-18-202. Additional restrictions on sentence. (1) The ~~court~~ sentencing judge may also impose any of the following restrictions or conditions on the sentence provided for in 46-18-201 that ~~it~~ the judge considers necessary to ohtain the objectives of rehabilitation and the protection of the victim and society:

(a) prohibition of the ~~defendant's~~ offender's holding public office;

(b) prohibition of the ~~defendant's~~ offender's owning or carrying a dangerous weapon;

(c) restrictions on the ~~defendant's~~ offender's freedom of association;

(d) restrictions on the ~~defendant's~~ offender's freedom of movement;

(e) any other limitation reasonably related to the objectives of rehabilitation and the protection of the victim and society.

(2) Whenever the ~~district court~~ sentencing judge imposes a sentence of imprisonment in ~~the~~ a state prison for a term exceeding 1 year, the ~~court~~ sentencing judge may also impose the restriction that the ~~defendant~~ offender is ineligible for parole and participation in the supervised release program while serving that term. If the restriction is to be imposed, the ~~court~~ sentencing judge shall state the reasons for it in writing. If the ~~court~~ sentencing judge finds that the restriction is necessary for the protection of society, ~~it~~ the judge shall impose the restriction as part of the sentence and the judgment must contain a statement of the reasons for the restriction.

Scction 5. Section 46-18-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-203. Revocation of suspended or deferred sentence. (1) Upon the filing of a petition for revocation showing probable cause that the ~~defendant~~ offender has violated any condition of a sentence or any condition of a deferred imposition of sentence, the ~~court~~ judge may issue an order for a hearing on revocation. The order must require the ~~defendant~~ offcnder to appoar at a specified time and place for the hearing and be served by delivering a copy of the petition and order to the ~~defendant~~ offender personally. The ~~court~~ judge may also issue an arrest warrant directing any peace officer or a probation officer to arrest the ~~defendant~~ offender and bring the ~~defendant~~ offender before the court.

(2) The petition for a revocation must be filed with the sentencing court during the period of suspension or deferral. Expiration of the period of suspension or deferral after the petition is filed does not deprive the court of its jurisdiction to rule on the petition.

(3) The provisions pertaining to bail, as set forth in Title 46, chapter 9, are applicable to persons arrested pursuant to this section.

(4) Without unnecessary delay, the ~~defendant~~ offender must be brought before the ~~court~~ judge, and the ~~defendant~~ offender must be advised of:

(a) the allegations of the petition;

(b) the opportunity to appear and to present evidence in the ~~defendant's~~ offender's own behalf;

(c) the opportunity to question adverse witnesses; and

(d) the right to be represented by counsel at the revocation hearing pursuant to Title 46, chapter 8, part 1.

(5) A hearing is required before a suspended or deferred sentence can be revoked or the terms or conditions of the sentence can be modified, unless:

(a) the ~~defendant~~ offender admits the allegations and waives the right to a hearing; or

(b) the relief to be granted is favorable to the ~~defendant,~~ offender and the prosecutor, after having been given notice of the proposed relief and a reasonable opportunity to object, has not objected. An extension of the term of probation is not favorable to the ~~defendant~~ offender for the purposes of this subsection (5)(b).

(6) At the hearing, the prosecution shall prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that there has been a violation of the terms and conditions of the suspended or deferred sentence. However, when a failure to pay restitution is the basis for the petition, the ~~defendant~~ offender may excuse the violation by showing sufficient evidence that the failure to pay restitution was not attributable to a failure on the ~~defendant's~~ offender's part to make a good faith effort to obtain sufficient means to make the restitution payments as ordered.

(7) (a) If the ~~court~~ judge finds that the ~~defendant~~ offender has violated the terms and conditions of the suspended or deferred sentence, the ~~court~~ judge may:

~~(a)~~(i) continue the suspended or deferred sentence without a change in conditions;

~~(b)~~(ii) continue the suspended sentence with modified or additional terms and conditions;

~~(c)~~(iii) revoke the suspension of sentence and require the ~~defendant~~ offender to serve either the sentence imposed or any lesser sentence; or

~~(d)~~(iv) if the sentence was deferred, impose any sentence that might have been originally imposed.

(b) If a suspended or deferred sentence is revoked, the judge shall consider any elapsed time and either expressly allow all or part of the time as a credit against the sentence or reject all or part of the time as a credit. The judge shall state the reasons for the judge's determination in the order. Credit, however, must be allowed for jail or home arrest time already served.

(8) If the ~~court~~ judge finds that the prosecution has not proved, by a preponderance of the evidence, that there has been a violation of the terms and conditions of the suspended or deferred sentence, the petition must he dismissed and the ~~defendant~~ offender, if in custody, immediately released."

Section 6. Section 46-18-219, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-219. Life sentence without possibility of release. (1) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3), if ~~a person~~ an offender convicted of one of the following offenses was previously convicted of one of the following offenses or of an offense under the laws of another state or of the United States that, if committed in this state, would be one of the following offenses, the ~~person~~ offender must be sentenced to life in prison, unless the death penalty is applicable and imposed:

(i) 45-5-102, deliberate homicide;

(ii) 45-5-303, aggravated kidnapping;

(iii) 45-5-503, sexual intercourse without consent;

(iv) 45-5-625, sexual abuse of children; or

(v) 45-5-627, except subsection (1)(b), ritual abuse of a minor.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (3), if ~~a person~~ an offender convicted of one of the following offenses was previously convicted of two of the following offenses, two of any combination of the offenses listed in subsection (1)(a) or the following offenses, or two of any offenses under the laws of another state or of the United States that, if committed in this state, would be one of the offenses listed in subsection (1)(a) or this subsection, the ~~person~~ offender must be sentenced to life in prison, unless the death penalty is applicable and imposed:

(i) 45-5-103, mitigated deliberate homicide;

(ii) 45-5-202(1), aggravated assault;

(iii) 45-5-302, kidnapping; or

(iv) 45-5-401, robbery.

(2) Except as provided in 46-23-210 and subsection (3) of this section, ~~a person~~ an offender sentenced under subsection (1):

(a) shall serve the entire sentence;

(b) shall serve the sentence in prison;

(c) may not for any reason, except a medical ~~reasons~~ reason, be transferred for any length of time to another type of institution, facility, or program;

(d) may not be paroled; and

(e) may not be given time off for good behavior or otherwise be given an early release for any reason.

(3) If the ~~person~~ offender was previously sentenced for either of two or three offenses listed in subsection (1), ~~as applicable,~~ pursuant to any of the exceptions listed in 46-18-222, then the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not apply to the ~~person's~~ offender's present sentence.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 236 1999

(4) The imposition or execution of the sentences prescribed by this section may not be deferred or suspended. In the event of a conflict between this section and any provision of 46-18-201 or [section 3], this section prevails.

~~(4)~~(5) (a) For purposes of this section, "prison" means a secure detention facility in which inmates are locked up 24 hours a day and that is operated by this state, another state, the federal government, or a private contractor.

(b) Prison does not include a work release center, prerelease center, boot camp, or any other type of facility that does not provide secure detention."

Section 7. Section 46-18-220, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-220. Sentences for certain offenses committed in state prison — death penalty. ~~A person serving a sentence of imprisonment in the state prison~~ An offender convicted of having committed ~~the offense of~~ attempted deliberate homicide, aggravated assault, or aggravated kidnapping ~~committed~~ while incarcerated at ~~the~~ a state prison shall be sentenced to death or life imprisonment as provided in 46-18-301 through 46-18-310."

Section 8. Section 46-18-222, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-222. Exceptions to mandatory minimum sentences and restrictions on deferred imposition and snspended execution of sentence. ~~All mandatory~~ Mandatory minimum sentences prescribed by the laws of this state, ~~and~~ mandatory life sentences prescribed by 46-18-219, and the restrictions on deferred imposition and suspended execution of sentence prescribed by 46-18-201~~(5) through (7)~~(1)(b), 46-18-221(3), 46-18-224, ~~and~~ 46-18-502(3), and [section 3] do not apply if:

(1) the ~~defendant~~ offender was less than 18 years of age at the time of the commission of the offense for which the ~~defendant~~ offender is to be sentenced;

(2) the ~~defendant's~~ offender's mental capacity, at the time of the commission of the offense for which the ~~defendant~~ offender is to be sentenced, was significantly impaired, although not so impaired as to constitute a defense to the prosecution. However, a voluntarily induced intoxicated or drugged condition may not be considered an impairment for the purposes of this subsection.

(3) the ~~defendant~~ offender, at the time of the commission of the offense for which the ~~defendant~~ offender is to be sentenced, was acting under unusual and substantial duress, although not such duress as would constitute a defense to the prosecution;

(4) the ~~defendant~~ offender was an accomplice, the conduct constituting the offense was principally the conduct of another, and the ~~defendant's~~ offender's participation was relatively minor;

(5) in a case in which the threat of bodily injury or actual infliction of bodily injury is an actual element of the crime, no serious bodily injury was inflicted on the victim unless a weapon was used in the commission of the offense; or

(6) the offense was committed under 45-5-502(3) and the ~~court~~ judge determines that treatment of the ~~defendant~~ offender in a local community affords a better opportunity for rehabilitation of the ~~defendant~~ offender and for the ultimate protection of the victim and society, in which case the ~~court~~ judge shall include in its judgment a statement of the reasons for its determination."

Section 9. Section 46-18-225, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 237 1999

"46-18-225. ~~Criteria for sentencing~~ Sentencing of nonviolent felony offenders — criteria — alternatives to be considered — court to state reasons for imprisonment. (1) In sentencing a nonviolent felony offender, the sentencing judge shall first consider alternatives to imprisonment of the offender in a state prison, including placement of the offender in a community corrections facility or program, a prerelease center, or a prerelease program. In considering alternatives to imprisonment, the sentencing judge shall examine the sentencing criteria contained in subsection (2).

(2) Prior to sentencing a nonviolent felony offender to whom 46-18-219 does not apply to a term of imprisonment in a state prison, the ~~court~~ sentencing judge shall take into account whether:

~~(1)~~(a) the interests of justice and the needs of public safety truly require the level of security provided by imprisonment of the offender in a state prison;

~~(2)~~(b) the needs of the offender can be better served in the community or in a facility or program other than a state prison;

~~(3)~~(c) there are substantial grounds tending to excuse or justify the offense, though failing to establish a defense;

~~(5)~~(e) the offender has made restitution or will make restitution to the victim of the offender's criminal conduct;

~~(5)~~(f) the offender has no prior history of conviction for a criminal act or, if the offender has a prior history of conviction for a criminal act, the offender has led a law-abiding life for a substantial period of time before the commission of the present crime;

~~(7)~~(g) the offender's criminal conduct was the result of circumstances that are unlikely to recur;

~~(3)~~(h) the character and attitude of the offender indicate that the offender is likely to commit another crime;

~~(9)~~(i) the offender is likely to respond quickly to correctional or rehabilitative treatment; and

~~(10)~~(j) imprisonment of the offender would create an excessive hardship on the offender or the offender's family.

(3) If the judge sentences the offender to a state prison, the judge shall state the reasons why the judge did not select an alternative to imprisonment, based on the criteria contained in subsection (2)."

Section 10. Section 46-18-231, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-231. Fines in felony and misdemeanor cases. (1) (a) ~~Whenever~~ Except as provided in subsection (1)(b), whenever, upon a verdict or a plea of guilty, ~~a person~~ an offender has been found guilty of an offense for which a felony penalty of imprisonment could be impesed, the ~~court~~ sentencing judge may, in lieu of or in addition to a sentence of imprisonment, impose a fine~~,~~ only in accordance with subsection (3)~~, and in lieu of or in addition to a sentence of imprisonment~~.

(b) For those crimes for which penalties are provided in ~~45-5-103, 45-5-202(3), 45-5-302(2), 45-5-303(2), 45-5-401(2), 45-5-502(3), 45-5-503(2) and (3), 45-9-101(2), (3), and (5)(d), 45-9-102(4), 45-9-103(2), and 45-9-109~~ the following

Section 1. Section 15-7-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-7-102. Notice of classification and appraisal to owners — appeals. (1) (a) The department shall mail to each owner or purchaser under contract for deed a notice of the classification of the land owned or being purchased and the appraisal of the improvements on the land only if one or more of the following changes pertaining to the land or improvements have been made since the last notice:

(i) change in ownership;

(ii) change in classification;

(iii) except as provided in subsection (1)(b), change in valuation; or

(iv) addition or subtraction of personal property affixed to the land.

(b) After the first year, the department is not required to mail the notice provided for in subsection (1)(a)(iii) if the change in valuation is the result of an incremental change in valuation caused by the phasing in of a reappraisal.

(c) The notice must include the following for the taxpayer's informational purposes:

(i) the total amount of mills levied against the property in the prior year; and

(ii) a statement that the notice is not a tax bill.

(b) The notice must advise the taxpayer that in order to be eligible for a refund of taxes from an appeal of the classification or appraisal, the taxpayer is required to pay the taxes under protest as provided in 15-1-402.

(c) The department is not required to mail the notice of classification and appraisal to a new owner or purchaser under contract for deed unless the department has received the transfer certificate from the clerk and recorder as provided in 15-7-304 and has processed the certificate before the notices required by subsection (2)(a) are mailed. days after receiving the notice of classification and appraisal from the department. The review must be conducted informally and is not subject to the contested case procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. As a part of the review, the department may consider the actual selling price of the property, independent appraisals of the property, and other relevant information presented by the taxpayer in support of the taxpayer's opinion as to the market value of the property. After the review, the department shall determine the correct appraisal and classification of the land or improvements and notify the taxpayer of its determination. The appeal to the county tax appeal board must be filed within 30 days after notice of the department's determination is mailed to the taxpayer. A county tax appeal board or the state tax appeal board may consider the actual selling price of the property, independent appraisals of the property, and other relevant information presented by the taxpayer as evidence of the market value of the property. If the county tax appeal board or the state tax appeal board determines that an adjustment should be made, the department shall adjust the base value of the property in accordance with the board's order."

(a) If the retirement system's law requires a lump-sum payment for the purchase of service credit, the board may establish a periodic payment plan for the member in order to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If payment pursuant to subsection (3)(a) will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits imposed by section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the board shall either reduce the member's contribution to an amount within the limits of that section or refuse the member's contribution.

(4) The limitation year for purposes of section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code is the calendar year beginning each January 1 and ending December 31.

~~(4)~~(5) When a member dies before distribution of benefits has begun, the entire interest of the member must be distributed within 5 years of the member's death. The 5-year payment rule does not apply to any portion of the member's interest that is payable to a designated beneficiary over the life or life expectancy of the beneficiary and that begins within 1 year after the date of the member's death. (2) (a) A member absent because of an employment-related injury entitling the member to workers' compensation payments may, upon the member's return to service, contribute to the retirement system an amount equal to the contributions that would have been made by the member to the system on the basis of the member's compensation at the commencement of the member's absence plus regular interest accruing from 1 year from the date after the member returns to covered service to the date the member contributes for the period of absence.

(b) Whenever a member elects to contribute under subsection (2)(a), the employer shall contribute employer contributions for the period of absence based on the salary as calculated in subsection (2)(a) and may pay interest on the employer's contribution calculated in the same manner as interest on the employee's contribution under subsection (2)(a). An employer electing to make an interest payment shall do so for all employees similarly situated. If the employer elects not to pay the interest costs, this amount must be paid by the employee.

(3) At some time after returning to covered service, a member shall file with the board a written notice of the member's intent to pay the contributions under subsection (2).

amount to the time of payment. However, the employer may pay the employer's portion, including accrued regular interest as provided in subsection (2)(b).

(b) The employer shall establish a policy as to the payment of retroactive employer contributions and apply this policy indiscriminately for all employees and former employees. All employee appeals of discrimination are subject to the determination of the board. All successful appeals obligate the employer to pay the employer and employee contributions with accrued interest for that employee filing the appeal with the board. Each appeal must be heard on its individual merits and may not bind the employer to pay all retroactive payments for all former and present employees.

(3) A member may secure service credit not previously credited by submitting salary information certified by the member's employer or former employer to the board. The board shall determine the eligibility of all service credit requests.

~~(4) Payment may be made in one sum at the time of filing notice or by making additional contributions on an installment basis before retirement. Failure to make regular monthly payments in any month in which the member receives normal compensation forfeits the person's right to make any further installment payments, unless permission is granted by the board.~~"

"19-3-512. Qualification of service from other public retirement systems. (1) A member with 5 or more years of membership service in the public employees' retirement system may qualify:

(2) If the salary or wage of the job created:

(a) exceeds the average weekly wage, as defined in 39-71-116, the amount of the job credit interest rate reduction may be increased proportionately for each increment of 25% above the average weekly wage to a maximum of two times the average weekly wage; or

[SB 52]

AN ACT MAKING THE INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX THRESHOLD FILING REQUIREMENT FOR NONRESIDENT TAXPAYERS THE SAME AS THE THRESHOLD FILING REQUIREMENT FOR RESIDENT TAXPAYERS; AMENDING SECTION 15-30-142, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 15-30-142, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-30-142. Returns and payment of tax — penalty and interest — refunds — credits. (1) ~~Each~~ For both resident and nonresident taxpayers, each single individual and each married individual not filing a joint return with a spouse and having a gross income for the tax year of more than $1,500, as adjusted under the provisions of subsection (7), and married individuals not filing separate returns and having a combined gross income for the tax year of more than $3,000, as adjusted under the provisions of subsection (7), are liable for a return to be filed on forms and according to rules that the department may prescribe. The gross income amounts referred to in the preceding sentence must be increased by $800, as adjusted under the provisions of 15-30-112(6), for each additional personal exemption allowance that the taxpayer is entitled to claim for the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse under 15-30-112(3) and (4). ~~A nonresident shall file a return if the taxpayer's gross income for the tax year derived from sources within Montana exceeds the amount of the personal exemption that the taxpayer is entitled to claim for the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse under the provisions of 15-30-112(2) through (4).~~

(2) In accordance with instructions set forth by the department, each taxpayer who is married and living with husband or wife and is required to file a return may, at the taxpayer's option, file a joint return with husband or wife even though one of the spouses has neither gross income nor deductions. If a joint return is made, the tax must be computed on the aggregate taxable income and the liability with respect to the tax is joint and several. If a joint return has been filed for a tax year, the spouses may not file separate returns after the time for filing the return of either has expired unless the department consents.

(3) If a taxpayer is unable to make the taxpayer's own return, the return must be made by an authorized agent or by a guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of the taxpayer.

(4) All taxpayers, including but not limited to those subject to the provisions of 15-30-202 and 15-30-241, shall compute the amount of income tax payable and shall, at the time of filing the return required by this chapter, pay to the department any balance of income tax remaining unpaid after crediting the amount withheld, as provided by 15-30-202, and any payment made by reason of an estimated tax return provided for in 15-30-241. However, the tax computed must be greater by $1 than the amount withheld and paid by estimated return as provided in this chapter. If the amount of tax withheld and the payment of estimated tax exceed by more than $1 the amount of income tax as computed, the taxpayer is entitled to a refund of the excess.

(5) As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the department shall examine and verify the tax.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 302 1999

(6) If the amount of tax as verified is greater than the amount paid, the excess must be paid by the taxpayer to the department within 60 days after notice of the amount of the tax as computed, with interest added at the rate of 9% a year or fraction of a year on the additional tax. In that case, there may not be a penalty because of the understatement if the deficiency is paid within 60 days after the first notice of the amount is mailed to the taxpayer.

(7) By November 1 of each year, the department shall multiply the minimum amount of gross income necessitating the filing of a return by the inflation factor for the tax year. These adjusted amounts are effective for that tax year, and persons who have gross incomes less than these adjusted amounts are not required to file a return.

(8) Individual income tax forms distributed by the department for each tax year must contain instructions and tables based on the adjusted base year structure for that tax year."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Section 3. Retroactive applicability. [This act] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to tax years beginning after December 31, 1998.

The department shall supply all necessary forms and shall, upon the request of the taxpayer, return all forms to the taxpayer after they have been examined by the department."

Section 3. Section 15-31-506, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-31-506. Copy of federal return required — report of amended federal return. Every corporation shall, upon request of the department of revenue, furnish a copy of its federal income tax return and the computation schedule filed for ~~such~~ the taxable year or years ~~as~~ that the department may specify in its request. Section 4. Section 15-31-509, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-31-509. Periods of limitation. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 15-31-544 and this section, a deficiency may not be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which a return is filed unless the notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed is mailed within 3 years from the date that the return was filed. For the purposes of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed for filing is considered as filed on the last day. When, before the expiration of the period prescribed for assessment of the tax, the taxpayer consents in writing to an assessment after the time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The limitations prescribed for giving notice of a proposed assessment of additional tax may not apply when:

If the taxpayer has agreed in writing under the provisions of subsection (1) to extend the time within which the department may propose an additional assessment, the period within which a claim for refund or credit may be filed or a credit or refund allowed in the event a claim is not filed must automatically be extended.

(3) If a claim for refund or credit is based upon an overpayment attributable to a net loss carryback adjustment as provided in 15-31-119, in lieu of the 3-year period provided for in subsection (1), the period must be the period that ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 41st month following the end of the tax year of the net loss that results in the carryback.

(4) If the year of the net operating loss is open under either state or federal waivers, the year to which the loss is carried back will remain open for the purposes of the loss carryback and for 12 months following the expiration of the state or federal waiver, even though the claim would otherwise be barred under this section."

Section 5. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

"61-3-332. Number plates. All markings for the various kinds of dealers' plates must be placed on the number plates assigued to the dealer, in the position that the department designates.

(2) All number plates for motor vehicles must be issued for a minimum poriod of 4 years, bear a distinctive marking, and be furnished by the state. In years when number plates are not issued, the department shall provide nonremovable stickers bearing appropriate registration numbers that must be affixed to the license plates in use.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 323 1999

(3) Subject to the provisions of this section, the department shall create a new design for number plates as provided in this section.

(4) In the case of motorcars and trucks, plates must be of metal 6 inches wide and 12 inches in length. Registration plates must be treated with a reflectorized background material according to specifications prescribed by the department.

Distinctive registration numbers for plates assigned to motor vehicles of each of the counties in the state and those of the municipalities and special districts that obtain plates within each county must begin with number one and be numbered consecutively. Because these number plates are of a permanent nature, they are subject to replacement by the department only when the physical condition of the number plates requires it and a year number may not be displayed on the number plates.

(7) On all number plates assigned to motor vehicles of the truck and trailer type, other than tax-exempt trucks and tax-exempt trailers, there must appear the letter "T" or the word "TRUCK" on plates assigned to trucks and the letters "TR" or the word "TRAILER" on plates assigned to trailers and housetrailers. (10) Each type of special license plate approved by the legislature, except collegiate license plates authorized in 61-3-463, must be a separate series of plates, numbered as provided in subsection (5), except that the county number must be replaced by a nonremovable design or decal designating the group or organization to which the applicant belongs. Unless otherwise specifically stated in this section, the special plates are subject to the same rules and laws as govern the issuance of regular license plates, must be placed or mounted on a vehicle owned by the person who is eligible to receive them, and must be removed upon sale or other disposition of the vehicle. AN ACT ALLOWING ELECTION ADMINISTRATORS TO ACCOMPLISH REGISTRATION AND VOTING ACTIONS THROUGH THE INTERNET FOR OVERSEAS ELECTORS IN THE UNITED STATES SERVICE; REMOVING AN EXCEPTION FOR ACCEPTING FACSIMILE BALLOTS AFTER THE POLLS CLOSE; AMENDING SECTIONS 13-13-276, 13-13-277, AND 13-13-278, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 13-13-276, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-13-276. Legislative findings and purpose. The legislature finds that the increased use of facsimile transmissions and the internet has encouraged the possibility of absentee voter registration and the sending and receiving of absentee ballots by facsimile and electronically through the internet. The legislature also finds that while federal law encourages but does not require the use of facsimile transmissions and the internet in federal elections, there is sufficient reliability in facsimile and internet technology and ~~there is~~ sufficient evidence that absentee facsimile and internet voting would be of benefit to electors in the United States service to provide for absentee registration and voting by facsimile and electronically through the internet. It is the purpose of 13-13-276 through 13-13-278 to allow for absentee voter registration and voting by facsimile and electronically through the internet for overseas electors in the United States service, while recognizing that state and local election officials have the responsibility to maintain the accuracy, integrity, and secrecy of the election process and the individual election ballot. It is the purpose of the legislature to allow facsimile and internet voting for electors in the United States service but to continue to ensure that voting security is maintained for the ultimate purpose of preventing election fraud and maintaining the validity of the election process."

Section 2. Section 13-13-277, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-13-277. Registration and voting by facsimile and internet authorized. The rules must require compliance with the same time requirements or deadlines as for registration and voting by absentee ballot by use of the public mails~~, except that the rules may provide for different times for the acceptance of facsimile ballots after the closing of the polls~~. The rules must maintain the accuracy, integrity, and secrecy of the ballot process and must allow registration and voting by facsimile through use of a private corporation or other private entity for transmission of facsimile messages only if the secretary of state finds that the use is essential to the purposes of 13-13-276 through 13-13-278.

(2) The secretary of state may apply for and receive a grant of funds from any agency or office of the United States government or from any other public or private source and may use the money for the purpose of implementing 13-13-276 through 13-13-278."

(a) at the time of first sale of any commodity by a seller and must be collected by the first purchaser of the commodity from the seller at the time of each settlement for the commodity purchased;

(b) in the case of a mortgage or pledge of a commodity as security for a loan under any federal price support program, other than the commodity credit corporation, at the time that the loan is made and must be collected by the agency or person making the loan by deducting the amount of the assessment from the proceeds of the loan;

(c) in the case of a commodity pledged under the federal commodity credit corporation, at the time of purchase and must be collected at the time of purchase, not at the time that a lease or loan is made under the program; or

(d) as otherwise provided by department rule for the specific research or market development program.

(3) The assessments levied under the provisions of this section must be deducted and collected as provided by [sections 1 through 13], whether the commodity is stored in Montana or any other state. The assessment attaches to each transaction, but a seller is not subject to assessment more than once regardless of the number of times that the commodity is the subject of a sale, mortgage, pledge, or other transaction. The assessment is imposed and attaches on the initial sale, mortgege, pledge, or other transaction in which the commodity seller parts with title to the commodity or creates some interest in the commodity in a mortgagee, pledgee, or other person.

(4) If the first purchaser is a foreign entity, the producer shall make a good faith effort to ensure that the assessment is collected as provided in this section and paid to the department as provided in [section 10].

(3) The statements referred te in subsections (1) and (2) must be legible and without corrections or erasures. A person may not alter any part of a statement.

(4) If the first purchaser fails to pay the department the assessment prescribed in subsection (2) within 60 days, the amount of the uncollected assessment must be considered a lien upon the assets of the first purchaser. The department, in its discretion, may:

(a) suspend or revoke any license authorizing the first purchaser to purchase the commodity;

(b) place a stop purchase or step sale order on commodities being purchased by the first purchaser;

(c) apply for and obtain an injunction; or

(d) seek a penalty set forth in [section 13].

(5) After 30 days and before 90 days following the deduction of the assessment by the first purchaser or the first lender under [section 9] or as otherwise provided by department rule, the seller may, upon the submission of a written, verified request to the department, obtain a refund of the assessment. The request must be accompanied by the original invoices received by the seller at the time of settlement. The department shall keep complete records of all refunds made under the provisions of this section for 2 years after the refund is made, after which records of refunds may be destroyed. All original invoices must be returned to the seller with the refund payment.

CHAPTER NO. 87

[SB 115]

AN ACT PROHIBITING CERTAIN SMALL EMPLOYER HEALTH INSURANCE CARRIERS FROM CONSIDERING AS ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES THOSE EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE WAIVED COVERAGE UNDER THE EMPLOYER'S PLAN BECAUSE OF OTHER EXISTING HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE; AND AMENDING SECTION 33-22-1811, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 33-22-1811, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-22-1811. Availability of coverage — required plans. (1) (a) As a condition of transacting business in this state with small employers, each small employer carrier must have approved for issuance to small employer groups at least two health benefit plans. One plan must be a basic health benefit plan, and one plan must be a standard health benefit plan.

(b) (i) A small employer carrier shall issue a basic health benefit plan or a standard health benefit plan to any eligible small employer that applies for either plan and agrees to make the required premium payments and to satisfy the other reasonable provisions of the health benefit plan not inconsistent with this part. If, pursuant to Public Law 104-191, an agency of the United States or a court does not prohibit a small employer carrier from doing so, a small employer carrier may offer and issue a group health benefit plan other than a basic or standard plan on an underwritten basis.

(ii) In the case of a small employer carrier that establishes more than one class of business pursuant to 33-22-1808, the small employer carrier shall maintain and offer to eligible small employers at least one basic health benefit plan and at least one standard health benefit plan in each established class of business. A small employer carrier may apply reasonable criteria in determining whether to accept a small employer into a class of business, provided that:

(A) the criteria are not intended to discourage or prevent acceptance of small employers applying for a health benefit plan;

(B) the criteria are not related to the health status or claims experience of the small employers' employees;

(C) the criteria are applied consistently to all small employers that apply for coverage in that class of business; and

(D) the small employer carrier provides for the acceptance of all eligible small employers into one or more classes of business.

(iii) The provisions of subsection (1)(b)(ii) may not be applied to a class of business into which the small employer carrier is no longer enrolling new small businesses.

(c) A small employer carrier that elects not to comply with the requirements of subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) may continue to provide coverage under health benefit plans previously issued to small employers in this state for a period of no more than 7 years from October 1, 1995, if the carrier:

(i) complies with all other applicable provisions of this part, except 33-22-1810, 33-22-1813, and subsections (2) through (4) of this section; and

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 349 1999

(ii) does not amend or alter the benefits and coverages of the previously issued health benefit plans unless required to do so by law or rule.

(2) (a) A small employer carrier shall, pursuant to 33-1-501, file the basic health benefit plans and the standard health benefit plans to be used by the small employer carrier.

(b) The commissioner may at any time, after providing notice and an opportunity for a hearing to the small employer carrier, disapprove the continued use by a small employer carrier of a basic or standard health benefit plan on the grounds that the plan does not meet the requirements of this part.

(3) Health benefit plans covering small employers must comply with the following provisions:

(a) A health benefit plan may not:

(i) because of a preexisting condition, deny, exclude, or limit benefits for a covered individual for losses incurred more than 12 months following the effective date of the individual's coverage. A health benefit plan may not define a preexisting condition exclusion more restrictively than 33-22-140.

(ii) use a preexisting condition exclusion more restrictive than exclusions allowed under 33-22-514.

(b) A health benefit plan must waive any time period applicable to a preexisting condition exclusion or limitation period with respect to particular services for the period of time that an individual was previously covered by creditable coverage that provided benefits with respect to those services if the creditable coverage was continuous to a date not more than 63 days prior to the submission of an application for new coverage. This subsection (3)(b) does not preclude application of any waiting period applicable to all new enrollees under the health benefit plan.

(c) A health benefit plan may exclude coverage for late enrollees for 18 months or for an 18-month preexisting condition exclusion, provided that if both a period of exclusion from coverage and a preexisting condition exclusion are applicable to a late enrollee, the combined period may not exceed 18 months from the date the individual enrolls for coverage under the health benefit plan.

(d) (i) Requirements used by a small employer carrier in determining whether to provide coverage to a small employer, including requirements for minimum participation of eligible employees and minimum employer contributions, must be applied uniformly among all small employers that have the same number of eligible employees and that apply for coverage or receive coverage from the small employer carrier. For the purpose of meeting minimum participation requirements of groups of four or more, a small employer carrier may not consider employees who, because they are covered under another health plan, waive coverage under the small employer's plan as part of the group of eligible employees. However, a small employer carrier may require at least two eligible employees to participate in a plan.

(ii) A small employer carrier may vary the application of minimum participation requirements and minimum employer contribution requirements only by the size of the small employer group.

(e) (i) If a small employer carrier offers coverage to a small employer, the small employer carrier shall offer coverage to all of the eligible employees of a small employer and their dependents. A small employer carrier may not offer coverage only to certain individuals in a small employer group or only to part of the group, except in the case of late enrollees as provided in subsection (3)(c).

(ii) A small employer carrier may not modify a basic or standard health benefit plan with respect to a small employer or any eligible employee or dependent, through riders, endorsements, or otherwise, to restrict or exclude coverage for certain diseases or medical conditions otherwise covered by the health benefit plan.

(iii) A small employer carrier shall secure a waiver of coverage from each eligible employee who declines, at the sole discretion of the eligible employee, an offer of coverage under a health benefit plan provided by the small employer. The waiver must be signed by the eligible employee and must certify that the employee was informed of the availability of coverage under the health benefit plan and of the penalties for late enrollment. The waiver may not require the eligible employee to disclose the reasons for declining coverage.

(iv) A small employer carrier may not issue coverage to a small employer if the carrier or a producer for the carrier has evidence that the small employer induced or pressured an eligible employee to decline coverage due to the health status or risk characteristics of the eligible employee or of the dependents of the eligible employee.

(4) (a) A small employer carrier may not be required to offer coverage or accept applications pursuant to subsection (1) in the case of the following:

(i) to an employer whose employees do not work or reside within the small employer carrier's established geographic service area for a network plan, as defined in 33-22-140; or

(ii) within an area where the small employer carrier reasonably anticipates and demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it will not have the capacity within its established geographic service area to deliver service adequately to the members of a group because of its obligations to existing group policyholders and enrollees. The small employer carrier may not deny coverage under this subsection unless the small employer carrier acts uniformly without regard to claims experience or health status-related factors of employers, employees, or dependents.

(b) A small employer carrier may not be required to provide coverage to small employers pursuant to subsection (1) for which the commissioner determines that the small employer carrier does not have the financial reserves necessary to underwrite additional coverage and that the small employer carrier has denied coverage of small employers uniformly throughout the state and without regard to the claims experience and health status-related factors of the applicant small employer groups. The small employer carrier exempted from providing coverage under this subsection may not offer coverage to small employer groups in this state for 180 days after the date on which coverage is denied or until the small employer carrier has demonstrated to the commissioner that the small employer carrier has sufficient financial reserves to underwrite additional coverage, whichever is later."

~~(c) if substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships is more readily available in another state;~~

~~(d) if the parties have agreed on another forum which is no less appropriate; and~~

~~(e) if the exercise of jurisdiction by a court of this state would contravene any of the purposes stated in 40-7-102.~~

(a) whether domestic violence has occurred and is likely to continue in the future and which state could best protect the parties and the child;

(b) the length of time that the child has resided outside this state;

(c) the distance between the court in this state and the court in the state that would assume jurisdiction;

(d) the relative financial circumstances of the parties;

(e) any agreement of the parties as to which state should assume jurisdiction;

(f) the nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation, including testimony of the child;

(g) the ability of the court of each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present the evidence; and

(h) the familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the pending litigation.

~~(4) Before determining whether to decline or retain jurisdiction, the court may communicate with a court of another state and exchange information pertinent to the assumption of jurisdiction by either court with a view to assuring that jurisdiction will be exercised by the more appropriate court and that a forum will be available to the parties.~~

~~(5)~~(3) If ~~the~~ a court ~~finds~~ of this state determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum, ~~it may dismiss the proceedings or~~ it ~~may~~ shall stay the proceedings upon condition that a ~~custody~~ child custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another ~~named~~ designated state ~~or upon~~ and may impose any other ~~conditions which may be~~ condition that the court considers just and proper~~, including the condition that a moving party stipulate his consent and submission to the jurisdiction of the other forum~~.

~~attorneys' fees, incurred by other parties or their witnesses. Payment is to be made to the clerk of the court for remittance to the proper party.~~

~~(8) Upon dismissal or stay of proceedings under this section the court shall inform the court found to be the more appropriate forum of this fact or, if the court which would have jurisdiction in the other state is not certainly known, transmit the information to the court administrator or other appropriate official for forwarding to the appropriate court.~~

(a) the parents and all persons acting as parents have acquiesced in the exercise of jurisdiction;

(c) no other state would have jurisdiction under [sections 21 through 23].

~~(2) Unless required in the interest of the child, the court may not exercise its jurisdiction to modify a custody decree of another state if the petitioner, without consent of the person entitled to custody, has improperly removed the child from the physical custody of the person entitled to custody or has improperly retained the child after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of physical custody. If the petitioner has violated any other provision of a custody decree of another state, the court may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if this is just and proper under the circumstances.~~

(2) If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to subsection (1), it may fashion an appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and prevent a repetition of the wrongful conduct, including staying the proceeding until a child custody proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction under [sections 21 through 23].

(3) ~~In appropriate cases~~ If a court ~~dismissing a petition under this section may~~ dismisses a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to subsection (1), it shall charge the ~~petitioner~~ party invoking the jurisdiction of the court with necessary ~~travel~~ and ~~other~~ reasonable expenses, including ~~attorneys' fees, incurred by other parties or their~~ costs, communication expenses, attorney fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, *travel expenses, and child care during the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees are sought establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate. (a) a visitation schedule made by a court of another state; or

(b) the visitation provisions of a child custody determination of another state that does not provide for a specific visitation schedule.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 369 1999

(2) If a court of this state makes an order under subsection (1)(b), it shall specify in the order a period of time that it considers adequate to allow the petitioner to obtain an order from a court having jurisdiction under the criteria specified in 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24]. The order remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other court or the period expires.

Section 29. Registration of child custody determination. (1) A child custody determination issued by a court of another state may be registered in this state, with or without a simultaneous request for enforcement, by sending to district court in this state:

(a) a letter or other document requesting registration;

(b) two copies, including one certified copy, of the determination sought to be registered and a statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person seeking registration, the order has not been modified; and

(c) the name and address of the person seeking registration and any parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody or visitation in the child custody determination sought to be registered.

(2) On receipt of the documents required by subsection (1), the registering court shall:

(a) cause the determination to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one copy of any accompanying documents and information, regardless of their form; and

(b) serve notice upon the persons named pursuant to subsection (1)(c) and provide them with an opportunity to contest the registration in accordance with this section.

(3) The notice required by subsection (2)(b) must state that:

(a) a registered determination is enforceable as of the date of the registration in the same manner as a determination issued by a court of this state;

(b) a hearing to contest the validity of the registered determination must be requested within 20 days after service of notice; and

(c) failure to contest the registration will result in confirmation of the child custody determination and preclude further contest of that determination with respect to any matter that could have been asserted.

(4) A person seeking to contest the validity of a registered order shall request a hearing within 20 days after service of the notice. At that hearing, the court shall confirm the registered order unless the person contesting registration establishes that:

(a) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24];

(b) the child custody determination sought to be registered has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court having jurisdiction to do so under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24]; or

(c) the person contesting registration was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the standards of 40-7-106, in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which registration is sought.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 370 1999

(5) If a timely request for a hearing to contest the validity of the registration is not made, the registration is confirmed as a matter of law and the person requesting registration and all persons served must be notified of the confirmation.

(6) Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and hearing, precludes furtber contest of the order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted at the time of registration.

Section 30. Enforcement of registered determination. (1) A court of this state may grant any relief normally available under the law of this state to enforce a registered child custody determination made by a court of another state.

(2) A court of this state shall recognize and enforce, but may not modify, except in accordance with 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24], a registered child custody determination of a court of another state.

Section 31. Simultaneous proceedings. If a proceeding for enforcement under [sections 25 through 41] is commenced in a court of this state and the court determines that a proceeding to modify the determination is commenced in a court of another state having jurisdiction to modify the determination under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24], the enforcing court shall immediately communicate with the modifying court. The proceeding for enforcement continues unless the enforcing court, after consultation with the modifying court, stays or dismisses the proceeding.

Section 32. Expedited enforcement of child custody determination. (1) A petition under [sections 25 through 41] must be verified. Certified copies of all orders sought to be enforced and of any order confirming registration must be attached to the petition. A copy of a certified copy of an order may be attached instead of the original.

(2) A petition for enforcement of a child custody determination must state:

(a) whether the court that issued the determination identified the jurisdictional basis that it relied upon in exercising jurisdiction and, if so, what the basis was;

(b) whether the determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court whose decision must be enforced under this chapter or federal law and, if so, identify the court, the case number of the proceeding, and the action taken;

(c) whether any proceeding has been commenced that could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions, and if so, identify the court, the case number, and the nature of the proceeding;

(d) the present physical address of the child and the respondent, if known;

(e) whether relief in addition to the immediate physical custody of the child and attorney fees is sought, including a request for assistance from law enforcement officials and, if so, the relief sought; and

(f) if the child custody determination has been registered and confirmed under [section 29], the date and place of registration.

(3) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall issue an order directing the respondent to appear in person with or without the child at a hearing and may enter any order necessary to ensure the safety of the parties and the child. The hearing must be held on the next judicial day after service of the order unless that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible. The court may extend the date of hearing at the request of the petitioner.

(4) The order must state the time and place of the hearing and must advise the respondent that at the hearing, the court will order the delivery of the child and the payment of fees, costs, and expenses under [section 36] and may set an additional hearing to determine whether further relief is appropriate, unless the respondent appears and establishes that:

(a) the child custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under [section 29] and that:

(i) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24];

(ii) the child custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court having jurisdiction to do so under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24] or federal law; or

(iii) the respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the standards of 40-7-106, in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which enforcement is sought; or

(b) the child custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and confirmed under [section 29], but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24] or federal law.

Section 33. Service of petition and order. Except as otherwise provided in [section 35], the petition and order must be served, hy any method authorized by the law of this state, upon the respondent and any person who has physical custody of the child.

Section 34. Hearing and order. (1) Unless the court issues a temporary emergency order pursuant to [section 24], upon a finding that a petitioner is entitled to the physical custody of the child immediately, the court shall order the child delivered to the petitioner unless the respondent establishes that:

(a) the child custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under [section 29] and that:

(i) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24];

(ii) the child custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24] or federal law; or

(iii) the respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the standards of 40-7-106, in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which enforcement is sought; or

(b) the child custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and confirmed under [section 29], but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24] or federal law.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 372 1999

(2) The court shall award the fees, costs, and expenses authorized under [section 36] and may grant additional relief, including a request for the assistance of law enforcement officials, and may set a further hearing to determine whether additional relief is appropriate.

(3) If a party called to testify refuses to answer on the ground that the testimony may be self-incriminating, the court may draw an adverse inference from tbe refusal.

(4) A privilege ageinst disclosure of communications between spouses and a defense of immunity based on the relationship of husband and wife or parent and child may not be invoked in a proceeding under [sections 25 through 41].

Seetion 35. Warrant to take physieal custody of child. (1) Upon the filing of a petition seeking enforcement of a child custody determination, the petitioner may file a verified application for the issuance of a warrant to take physical custody of the child if the child is imminently likely to suffer serious physical harm or to be removed from this state.

(2) If the court, upon the testimony of the petitioner or other witness, finds that the child is imminently likely to suffer serious physical harm or to be removed from this state, it may issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child. The petition must be heard on the next judicial day after the warrant is executed unless that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible. The application for the warrant must include the statements required by [section 32(2)].

(3) A warrant to take physical custody of a child must:

(a) recite the facts upon which a conclusion of imminent serious physical harm or removal from the jurisdiction is based;

(b) direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately; and

(c) provide for the placement of the child, pending final relief.

(4) The respondent must be served with the petition, warrant, and order immediately after the child is taken into physical custody.

(5) A warrant to take physical custody of a child is enforceable throughout this state. If the court finds on the basis of the testimony of the petitioner or other witness that a less intrusive remedy is not effective, it may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical custody of the child. If required by exigent circumstances of the case, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

(6) The court may impose conditions upon placement of a child to ensure the appearance of the child and the child's custodian.

Section 36. Costs, fccs, and expenses. (1) The court shall award the prevailing party, including a state, necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by or on behalf of the party, including costs, communication expenses, attorney fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses, and child care during the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees or expenses are sought establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate.

(2) The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against a state unless authorized by law other than this chapter.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 373 1999

Section 37. Recognition and enforcement. A court of this state shall accord full faith and credit to an order issued hy another state and consistent with this chapter that enforces a child custody determination hy a court of another state unless the order has been vacated, stayed, or modified hy a court having jurisdiction to do so under 40-7-105, 40-7-107 through 40-7-110, 40-7-112, and [sections 21 through 24].

Section 38. Appeals. An appeal may be taken from a final order in a proceeding under [sections 25 through 41]. Unless the court enters a temporary emergency order under [section 24], the enforcing court may not stay an order enforcing a child custody determination pending appeal.

Section 39. Rele of prosecutor. (1) In a case arising under this chapter or involving the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, the prosecutor may take any lawful action, including resorting to a proceeding under [sections 25 through 41] or any other available civil proceeding, to locate a child, obtain the return of a child, or enforce a child custody determination if there is:

(a) an existing child custody determination;

(b) a request to do so from a court in a pending child custody proceeding;

(c) a reasonable belief that a criminal statute has been violated; or

(d) a reasonahle belief that the child has been wrongfully removed or retained in violation of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

(2) A prosecutor acts on behalf of the court and may not represent any party to a child custody determination.

Section 40. Role of law enforcement. At the request of a prosecutor acting under [section 39], a law enforcement officer may take any lawful action reasonably necessary to locate a child or a party and to assist a prosecutor with responsibilities under [section 39].

[HB 392]

AN ACT EXPANDING THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY TO CONSULT WITH THE STATEWIDE TMDL ADVISORY GROUP ON MATTERS RELATED TO WATER QUALITY MONITORING, ASSESSMENT, AND TMDL DEVELOPMENT; AMENDING SECTIONS 75-5-702 AND 75-5-703, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-5-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-5-702. Monitoring — water quality assessment listing — statewide advisory group. (1) The department shall monitor state waters to assess the quality of those waters and to identify surface water bodies or segments of surface water bodies that are threatened or impaired. The department shall use the monitoring results to revise the list of water bodies that are identified as threatened or impaired and to establish a priority ranking for TMDL development for those waters in accordance with subsections (4) and (7).

(2) In revising the list prepared pursuant to this section, the department shall use all currently available data, including information or data obtained from federal, state, and local agencies, private entities, or individuals with an interest in water quality protection. Except as provided in subsection (6), the department may modify the list only if there is sufficient credible data to support the modification. Prior to publishing a final list, the department shall provide public notice and allow 60 days for public comment on the draft list. The department shall make available for public review, upon request, documentation used in the determination to list or delist a particular water body, including, at a minimum, a description of the information, data, and methodology used. The department may charge a reasonable fee for the documentation, commensurate with the cost of providing the documentation to the requestor.

(3) A person may request that the department add or remove a water body or reprioritize a water body on a draft or published list by providing the data or information necessary to support the request. The department shall review the data within 60 days from its submittal. If the department determines that there is sufficient credible data to grant the request, the department shall provide public notice of its intended action and allow 60 days for public comment prior to taking action on the request. A person aggrieved by the department's decision to grant or deny the request may appeal the department's decision to the board.

(4) The department shall, in consultation with local conservation districts and watershed advisory groups pursuant to 75-5-704, review and revise the list and priority rankings of water bodies identified as threatened or impaired. The department shall review and revise the list at intervals not to exceed 5 years. The department shall make available for public review the data and information used in making any changes in its list of threatened or impaired water bodies that is developed and maintained pursuant to this section.

(5) By October 1, 1999, and in consultation with the statewide TMDL advisory group established pursuant to subsection (9), the department shall develop and maintain a data management system that can be used to assess the validity and reliability of the data used in the listing and priority ranking process.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 376 1999

The department shall make available to the public, upon request, data from its data management system. The department may charge a reasonable fee for the data, commensurate with its cost of providing the data to the requestor.

(6) By October 1, 1999, and in consultation with the statewide TMDL advisory group, the department shall use the data management system developed and maintained pursuant to subsection (5) to revise the list and to remove any water body that lacks sufficient credible data to support its listing. If the department removes a water body because there is a lack of sufficient credible data to support its listing, the department shall monitor and assess that water body during the next field season or as soon as possible thereafter to determine whether it is a threatened water body or an impaired water body.

(7) In prioritizing water bodies for TMDL development, the department shall, in consultation with the statewide TMDL advisory group ~~established pursuant to subsection (9)~~, take into consideration the following:

(a) the beneficial uses established for a water body;

(b) the extent that natural factors over which humans have no control are contributing to any impairment;

(c) the impacts to human health and aquatic life;

(d) the degree of public interest and support;

(e) the character of the pollutant and the severity and magnitude of water quality standard noncompliance;

(f) whether the water body is an important high-quality resource in an early stage of degradation;

(g) the size of the water body not achieving standards;

(h) immediate programmatic needs, such as waste load allocations for new permits or permit renewals and load allocations for new nonpoint sources;

(i) court orders and decisions relating to water quality;

(j) state policies and priorities, including the protection and restoration of native fish when appropriate;

(k) the availability of technology and resources to correct the problems;

(l) whether actions or voluntary programs that are likely to correct the impairment of a particular water body are currently in place; and

(m) the recreational, economic, and aesthetic importance of a particular water body.

(8) The department shall, in consultation with the statewide TMDL advisory group, develop a method of rating water bodies according to the criteria and considerations described in subsection (7) in order to rank the listed water bodies as high priority, moderate priority, or low priority for TMDL development. The department may not rank a water body as a high priority under this section without first validating the data necessary to support the ranking.

(9) (a) The department shall establish a statewide TMDL advisory group to serve in the consultation capacity set forth in 75-5-703, 75-5-704~~(2)(a)~~, and ~~subsections (7) and (8) of~~ this section. Fourteen members, and any replacement members that may be necessary, must be appointed by the director, based upon one nomination from each of the following interests:

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 377 1999

(i) livestock-oriented agriculture;

(ii) farming-oriented agriculture;

(iii) conservation or environmental interests;

(iv) water-based recreationists;

(v) the forestry industry;

(vi) municipalities;

(vii) point source dischargers;

(viii) mining;

(ix) federal land management agencies;

(x) state trust land management agencies;

(xi) supervisors of soil and water conservation districts for counties east of the continental divide;

(xii) supervisors of soil and water conservation districts for counties west of the continental divide;

(xiii) the hydroelectric industry; and

(xiv) fishing-related businesses.

(b) If the director receives more than one nomination from a particular interest, the director shall notify the respective nominators and request that they agree on one nominee.

(10) The department shall provide public notice of meetings of the statewide TMDL advisory group and shall solicit, document, and consider public comments provided during the deliberations of the advisory group."

Section 2. Section 75-5-703, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-5-703. Development and implementation of total maximum daily loads. (1) The department shall, in consultation with local conservation districts and watershed advisory groups, develop total maximum daily loads or TMDLs for threatened or impaired water bodies or segments of water bodies in order of the priority ranking established by the department under 75-5-702. Each TMDL must be established at a level that will achieve compliance with applicable water quality standards and must include a reasonable margin of safety that takes into account any lack of knowledge concerning the relationship between the TMDL and water quality standards. The department shall consider applicable guidance from the federal environmental protection agency, as well as the environmental, economic, and social costs and benefits of developing and implementing a TMDL.

(2) In establishing TMDLs under subsection (1), the department may establish waste load allocations for point sources~~,~~ and may establish load allocations for nonpoint sources, as set forth in subsection (8), and may allow for effluent trading. The department shall, in consultation with local conservation districts and watershed advisory groups, develop reasonable land, soil, and water conservation practices specifically recognizing established practices and programs for nonpoint sources.

(3) Within 10 years from May 5, 1997, the department shall develop TMDLs for all water bodies on the list of waters that are threatened or impaired, as that list ~~reads~~ read on May 5, 1997. This provision does not apply to water bodies that are subsequently added or removed from the list according to the provisions of 75-5-702. ~~Within 1 year from May 5, 1997, the~~ The department shall establish a schedule for completing the TMDLs within the 10-year period established by this subsection. The schedule must also provide a reasonable timeframe for TMDL development for impaired and threatened water bodies that are listed subsequent to May 5, 1997, and are prioritized as set forth in 75-5-702.

(4) The department shall provide guidance for TMDL development on any threatened or impaired water body, regardless of its priority ranking, if the necessary funding and resources from sources outside the department are available to develop the TMDL and to monitor the effectiveness of implementation efforts. The department shall review the TMDL and either approve or disapprove the TMDL. If the TMDL is approved by the department, the department shall ensure implementation of the TMDL according to the provisions of subsections (6) through (8).

(5) For water bodies listed under 75-5-702, the department shall provide assistance and support to landowners, local conservation districts, and watershed advisory groups for interim measures that may restore water quality and remove the need to establish a TMDL, such as informational programs regarding control of nonpoint source pollution and voluntary measures designed to correct impairments. When a source implements voluntary measures to reduce pollutants prior to development of a TMDL, those measures, whether or not reflected in subsequently issued waste discharge permits, must be recognized in development of the TMDL in a way that gives credit for the pollution reduction efforts.

(6) After development of a TMDL and upon approval of the TMDL, the department shall:

(a) incorporate the TMDL into its current continuing planning process;

(b) incorporate the waste load allocation developed for point sources during the TMDL process into appropriate water discharge permits; and

(c) assist and inform landowners regarding the application of a voluntary program of reasonable land, soil, and water conservation practices developed pursuant to subsection (2).

(7) Once the control measures identified in subsection (6) have been implemented, the department shall, in consultation with the statewide TMDL advisory group, develop a monitoring program to assess the waters that are subject to the TMDL to determine whether compliance with water quality standards has been attained for a particular water body or whether the water body is no longer threatened. The monitoring program must be designed based on the specific impairments or pollution sources. The department's monitoring program must include long-term monitoring efforts for the analysis of the effectiveness of the control measures developed.

(8) The department shall support a voluntary program of reasonable land, soil, and water conservation practices to achieve compliance with water quality standards for nonpeint source activities for water bodies that are subject to a TMDL developed and implemented pursuant to this section.

(9) If the monitoring program provided under subsection (7) demonstrates that the TMDL is not achieving compliance with applicable water quality standards within 5 years after approval of a TMDL, the department shall conduct a formal evaluation of progress in restoring wator quality and the status of reasonable land, soil, and water conservation practice implementation to determine if:

(a) the implementation of a new or improved phase of voluntary reasonable land, soil, and water conservation practice is necessary;

(b) water quality is improving but a specified time is needed for compliance with water quality standards; or

(c) revisions to the TMDL are necessary to achieve applicable water quality standards.

(10) Pending completion of a TMDL on a water body listed pursuant to 75-5-702:

(a) point source discharges to a listed water body may commence or continue, provided that:

(i) the discharge is in conformance with a discharge permit that reflects, in the manner and to the extent applicable for the particular discharge, the provisions of 75-5-303;

(ii) the discharge will not cause a decline in water quality for parameters by which the water body is impaired; and

(iii) minimum treatment requirements adopted pursuant to 75-5-305 are met;

(b) the issuance of a discharge permit may not be precluded because a TMDL is pending;

(c) new or expanded nonpoint source activities affecting a listed water body may commence and continue ~~their activities~~ provided those activities are conducted in accordance with reasonable land, soil, and water conservation practices;

(d) for existing nonpoint source activities, the department shall continue to ~~utilize~~ use educational nonpoint source control programs and voluntary measures as provided in subsections (5) and (6).

(11) This section may not be construed to prevent a person from filing an application or petition under 75-5-302, 75-5-310, or 75-5-312."

(d) The board may establish and maintain program reserves not to exceed five times the actuarially anticipated losses for the calendar year.

(e) If the sum of the reinsurance premiums and assessments in any calendar year exceeds the sum of the administrative expenses and incurred claims for that year, the board may proportionately credit the excess to assessable carriers or it may place the excess in program reserves, subject to the limits in subsection ~~(7)(d)~~ (8)(d).

~~(8)~~(9) The participation in the program as reinsuring carriers; the establishment of rates, forms, or procedures; or any other joint collective action required by this part may not be the basis of any legal action, criminal or civil liability, or penalty against the program or any of its reinsuring carriers, either jointly or separately.

~~(9) The board, as part of the plan of operation, shall develop standards setting forth the minimum levels of compensation to be paid to producers for the sale of basic and standard health benefit plans. In establishing the standards, the board shall take into consideration the need to ensure the broad availability of coverages, the objectives of the program, the time and effort expended in placing the coverage, the need to provide ongoing service to small employers, the levels of compensation currently used in the industry, and the overall costs of coverage to small employers selecting these plans.~~

(1) When two or more offenses are known to the prosecutor, are supported by probable cause, and are consummated prior to the original charge and jurisdiction and venue of the offenses lie in a single court, a prosecution is barred if:

(a) the former prosecution resulted in an acquittal. There is an acquittal whenever the prosecution results in a finding of not guilty by the trier of fact or in a determination that there is insufficient evidence to warrant a conviction. A finding of guilty of a lesser included offense that is subsequently set aside is an acquittal of the greater offense that was charged.

(b) the former prosecution resulted in a conviction that has not been set aside, reversed, or vacated;

(c) after a charge had been filed, the prosecution was terminated by a final order or judgment for the defendant that has not been set aside, reversed, or vacated; or

(d) the former prosecution was terminated for reasons not amounting to an acquittal and takes place:

(i) in a jury trial, ~~after the first witness is sworn but before a verdict is returned~~ when the jury is empaneled and sworn; or

(ii) in a nonjury trial, after the first witness is sworn but before a judgment as to guilt or innocence is reached.

(2) A prosecution based upon the same transaction as a former prosecution is not barred under subsection (1)(d) when:

(a) the defendant consents to the termination or waives ~~his~~ the right to object to the termination; or

(b) the trial court finds that the termination is necessary because:

(i) it is physically impossible to proceed with the trial in conformity with law;

(ii) there is a legal defect in the proceedings that would make any judgment entered upon a verdict reversible as a matter of law;

(iii) prejudicial conduct makes it impossible to proceed with the trial without manifest injustice to either the defendant or the state;

(iv) the jury is unable to agree upon a verdict; or

(v) false statements of a juror on voir dire prevent a fair trial."

(2) For the purpose of section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the plan document for the retirement plan is composed of the applicable provisions of the Montana constitution, this chapter, and applicable rules adopted by the board."

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 430 1999

Section 4. General internal revenue service qualification rules. (1) The board shall distribute the corpus and income of the system to the members and their beneficiaries in accordance with the system's law. (5) The board may maintain a qualified governmental excess benefit arrangement under section 415(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. (f) any person who has elected not to become a member of the retirement system, who has been continuously employed in a capacity prescribed by subsection (1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), or (1)(d) since the time of the election, and who may elect to become a member of the retirement system.

(2) A person elected to the office of county superintendent of schools after July 1, 1995, is not eligible for optional membership in the public employees' retirement system under the provisions of 19-3-412 and may, within 30 days of taking office, elect to become an active member of the teachers' retirement system. The retirement system membership of an elected county superintendent of schools as of June 30, 1995, must remain unchanged for as long as the person continues to serve in the capacity of county superintendent of schools.

(3) In order to be eligible for active membership, a person described in subsection (1) or (2) must:

(a) be employed in the capacity prescribed for the person's eligibility for at least 30 days in any fiscal year; and

(b) have the compensation for the person's creditable service totally paid by an employer.

(4) (a) A substitute teacher:

(ii) is required to become an active member of the retirement system on the 31st day of employment in any fiscal year if the substitute teacher has not elected membership under subsection (4)(a)(i).

(b) A person employed as a substitute teacher on July 1, 1999, who has not elected to become a member by that date shall make an irrevocable election as required by subsection (4)(a)(i) on the first day of employment as a substitute in the next school year after July 1, 1999.

(c) The employer shall give written notification to a substitute teacher on the first day of employment ~~in any fiscal year~~ of the option to elect membership under subsection (4)(a)(i).

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 432 1999

(d) If a substitute teacher declines to elect membership during the election period, the teacher shall execute a written statement waiving membership and the employer shall retain the statement.

(5) ~~A substitute teacher who did not elect membership under subsection (4)(a)(i) and who subsequently becomes a member must be awarded creditable service for substitute teaching service if the substitute teacher contributes:~~

~~(a) an amount equal to the combined employee and employer contributions that would have been made if the substitute teacher had elected membership; plus~~

~~(b) interest at the rate that the contributions would have earned if they had been on deposit with the retirement system.~~

~~(6)~~ At any time that a person's eligibility to become a member of the retirement system is in doubt, the retirement board shall determine the person's eligibility for membership. All persons in similar circumstances must be treated alike."

Section 6. Section 19-20-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-404. Creditable service for active service in military, red cross, or merchant marine. (1) A member may receive up to 4 years of creditable service without cost for active service in the armed forces of the United States, which includes the army, navy, marine corps, air force, and coast guard, during the Korean conflict between June 1, 1950, and January 31, 1955, and the Vietnam conflict between December 22, 1961, and May 7, 1975, dates inclusive, if the member has 5 years or more of creditable service in the retirement system. To qualify this service, a member shall submit to the board a ~~completed~~ written application form and proper certification of the member's military service.

(2) ~~(a)~~ If a member is ineligible for service credit under subsection (1), the member may apply under the provisions of this subsection ~~(a)~~ for creditable service in the retirement system~~, except as provided in subsection (2)(b),~~ for active service in the armed forces of the United States, which includes the army, navy, marine corps, air force, and coast guard, or in the American red cross or merchant marine. The person must be awarded creditable service, conditional upon the person's completing 5 years of active membership in Montana, for the number of years, not exceeding 2, that the retirement board determines to be creditable service, if the person contributes to the retirement system an amount equal to the combined employer and employee contributions for the person's first full year's teaching salary earned in Montana following the active service in the armed forces of the United States, the American red cross, or the merchant marine for each year of creditable service plus interest at the rate the contribution would have earned had the contribution been in the person's account upon completion of 5 years of membership service in Montana. The contribution rate is that rate in effect at the time the person is eligible for the service.

~~(b) If a member elects to purchase additional service under 19-20-412, service purchased under this subsection (2) may be used only for the purpose of calculating the member's retirement allowance and may not be considered creditable service for the purpose of determining eligibility under 19-20-801 or 19-20-802.~~

(3) The contribution required under subsection (2) may be made in a lump-sum payment or in installments as agreed between the person and the retirement board."

Section 7. Section 19-20-405, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 433 1999

"19-20-405. Limit on creditable service that may be awarded. The total creditable service for service purchased under 19-20-402 through 19-20-404, 19-20-408, and 19-20-410(1)~~, and 19-20-412~~ may not exceed 5 years."

Section 8. Section 19-20-414, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-414. Rollover or transfer of public employee accumulated contributions. (1) A member who is eligible to qualify service under this chapter may at any time before retirement apply to roll over or transfer the member's accumulated contributions on deposit with any other ~~qualified~~ eligible retirement plan. The total amount transferred to the retirement system may not exceed the amount due to purchase service.

(2) If, in the case of a transfer, the transferred ~~the~~ account includes both tax-deferred and taxed ~~contributions~~ amounts, the transferring agency shall identify the member's tax-deferred and taxed ~~contribution and interest balances~~ amounts at the time the transfer is made.

(3) To the extent permitted by section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code and as limited by subsection (1), the board shall accept a direct rollover of eligible distributions from another eligible retirement plan."

Section 9. Procedure for purchase of service credit and pick up. (1) A member who wishes to redeposit pursuant to 19-20-602(2) amounts previously withdrawn or who is eligible to purchase service credit pursuant to this part shall make the following series of elections to accomplish the redeposit or purchase:

(a) The member may elect a lump-sum payment, a series of installment payments, or a combination of lump-sum payments and installment payments.

(b) If a series of installment payments are elected by the member, the member may elect to pay the installments directly to the board or to have the installments paid by payroll deduction or the member may select a combination of both.

(c) With respect to installments payable by payroll deduction, if the member's employer has adopted the resolution described in subsection (2), the member shall elect the irrevocable payroll deduction authorization provided in subsection (4). If the member's employer has not adopted the resolution, the member may elect only a revocable payroll deduction authorization.

(2) An employer may adopt a resolution to pick up and pay the member's elective contributions made pursuant to a binding, irrevocable payroll deduction authorization. The contributions picked up by the employer must be payable from the same source as is used to pay compensation to the member. The resolution must contain the following statements:

(a) that the member contributions, even though designated as member contributions for state law purposes, are being paid by the employer in lieu of the contributions by the member; and

(b) that the member may not choose to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the system.

(3) (a) With respect to any member's elective contributions, the effective date of the employer pick up is the later of:

(i) the adoption of the employer's resolution; or

(ii) the execution of the irrevocable payroll deduction authorization form.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 434 1999

(b) The pick up does not apply to a contribution made before the effective date of the employer's resolution. An irrevocable payroll deduction authorization in effect on the effective date of the employer's resolution is void and the provisions of subsection (1) apply.

(4) If the irrevocable payroll deduction authorization is elected by the member, it must be executed by the member and the member's employer. Subject to any maximum amounts or duration established by state or federal law, the irrevocable payroll deduction authorization must specify:

(a) the amount of the deduction;

(b) the number of installments;

(c) the number of years and type of service that the member is purchasing; and

(d) that the contributions being picked up, although designated as member contributions, are being paid by the employer directly to the board in lieu of contributions by the member.

(5) The minimum duration of the irrevocable payroll deduction authorization is 3 months, and the maximum duration is 5 years. The minimum number of years specified to be purchased may not be less than 1 year or the total number of years that the member is eligible to purchase. The maximum may not exceed the total number of years that the member is eligible to purchase.

(6) The irrevocable payroll deduction authorization may not give the member the option of receiving the deduction amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the system. A member may make more than one binding, irrevocable payroll deduction authorization so long as a subsequent deduction authorization does not amend a previous binding, irrevocable payroll deduction authorization. A member may not prepay any amounts under a binding, irrevocable payroll deduction authorization.

(7) If a member terminates or dies prior to completion of the installment payments, the binding, irrevocable payroll deduction authorization expires and the board shall prorate the service credit purchased based upon the amount paid as of the date of termination or death. In the case of a termination, the member may make a lump-sum contribution for the balance of the service subject to the limitations of section 415 of the Internal Revenue Cede. In the case of the member's death, the payment to purchase service may be made from the member's estate subject to the limitations of section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 10. Credit for legislative service required. (1) A legislater who did not elect to continue to participate in the system, as provided under 5-2-304, and who subsequently participates as a member must be awarded creditable service for legislative service if the legislator contributes:

(a) an amount equal to the member contributions that would have been made if the legislator had elected membership; and

(b) interest at the rate that the contributions would have earned if they had been on deposit with the retirement system.

(2) The employer contribution must be made by the legislative branch in the amount that would have been contributed if the legislator had elected membership plus interest at the rate that the contributions would have earned if they had been on deposit with the retirement system.

Section 11. Credit for substitnte teaching service required. A substitute teacher who did not elect membership under 19-20-302 and who subsequently becomes a member must be awarded creditable service for substitute teaching service if the substitute teacher contributes:

(1) an amount equal to the combined member and employer contributions that would have been made if the substitute teacher had elected membership; and

(2) interest at the rate that the contributions would have earned if they had been on deposit with the retirement system.

Section 12. Section 19-20-502, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-502. Restrictions on use of ~~moneys~~ money. (1) ~~No~~ A member of the retirement board ~~or any of its employees~~ or an employee of the board may not:

(a) have an interest, direct or indirect, in the gains or profits of any investment of ~~moneys~~ money of the retirement system, except as ~~herein~~ provided in this section;

(b) directly or indirectly, for ~~himself~~ the member or employee or as an agent, in any manner use the ~~moneys~~ money or deposits of the retirement system except to make ~~such~~ current and necessary expenditures ~~as are~~ authorized by the retirement board; or

(c) become an endorser or surety or in any manner an obligor for ~~moneys~~ money loaned by or borrowed from the retirement system.

(2) The assets of the retirement system may not be used for or diverted to any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the members and their beneficiaries and for paying the reasonable expenses of administering the retirement system.

(3) The board may not engage in a transaction prohibited by section 503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code."

Annuity savings fund — member's contribution. (1) The annuity savings fund is a fund in which the contributions for the members to provide for their retirement allowance or benefits must be accumulated in individual accounts for each member. The normal contribution of each member is 7.044% of the member's earned compensation. Contributions te and payments from the annuity savings fund must be made in the following manner:

~~(1)~~ (a) Each employer, pursuant to section 414(h)(2) of the ~~federal~~ Internal Revenue Code ~~of 1954, as amended and applicable on July 1, 1985, shall~~:

(i) shall pick up and pay the contributions that would be payable by the member under this ~~section~~ subsection (1) for service rendered after June 30, 1985*;*

(iii) may pick up and pay the contributions that would be payable by the member pursuant to [section 9].

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 436 1999

(b) The member's contributions picked up by the employer must be designated for all purposes of the retirement system as the member's contributions, except for the determination of a tax upon a distribution from the retirement system. These contributions must become part of the member's accumulated contributions but must be accounted for separately from those previously accumulated.

(c) The member's contributions picked up by the employer must be payable from the same source as is used to pay compensation to the member and must be included in the member's earned compensation as defined in 19-20-101. The employer shall deduct from the member's compensation an amount equal to the amount of the member's contributions picked up by the employer and remit the total of the contributions to the retirement board.

(d) The deductions must be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for a member may be reduced by the deductions. Each member is considered to consent to the deductions prescribed by this section, and payment of salary or compensation less the deductions is a complete discharge of all claims for the services rendered by the member during the period covered by the payment, except as to the benefits provided by the retirement system.

(2) In addition to the normal contributions, ~~and~~ subject to the approval of the retirement board, and to the extent permitted by section 415(k)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, a member may redeposit in the annuity savings fund, by a single payment or by an increased rate of contribution, an amount equal to accumulated contributions that the member has previously withdrawn, plus interest in the amount the contributions would have earned had the contributions not been withdrawn. The redeposit must be made in accordance with [section 9].

(3) The accumulated contributions of a member withdrawn by the member or paid to the member's estate or to the member's designated beneficiary in event of the member's death must be paid from the annuity savings fund. Upon the retirement of a member, the member's accumulated contributions must be transferred from the annuity savings fund to the pension accumulation fund."

Section 14. Section 19-20-603, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-603. Withdrawal of accumulated contributions — options. An inactive member electing to do so or a person whose membership terminates without a prospect or anticipation that the member will return to work for an employer within 60 days of termination may withdraw the member's accumulated contributions from the annuity savings fund in the retirement system in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) An inactive member under the provisions of 19-20-303(1) or (3) may elect, without right of revocation, to withdraw the member's accumulated contributions. If the member does not withdraw the accumulated contributions, the member remains an inactive member of the retirement system with the right to qualify for its benefits.

(2) Upon recovery from a disabling illness or separation from the armed forces, a person qualifying as an inactive member under the provisions of 19-20-303(2) may withdraw the member's accumulated contributions unless the member returns to active membership.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 437 1999

~~(3) A person whose membership terminates under the provisions of 19-20-304(4) may withdraw the person's accumulated contributions.~~

~~(4)~~ Upon written ~~request~~ application to the board, a terminating member may have the payment of all or any portion of the member's accumulated contributions rolled over or transferred into another qualified plan designated by the member. The portion not rolled over or transferred must be paid directly to the terminating member. The board shall provide forms for making the written ~~request~~ application. The terminating member is responsible for correctly designating an account or plan eligible to receive the tax-deferred amount in order to continue the tax-deferred status of the amount. To the extent required by section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, the board shall allow members and qualified beneficiaries to elect a direct rollover of eligible distributions to another eligible retirement plan.

(4) If a nonvested member terminates with accumulated contributions of less than $200, the board shall pay the accumulated contributions in a lump sum as soon as administratively feasible without a written application from the member unless there is a return to service. Upon the payment of accumulated contributions, the member is considered to have withdrawn from the system."

Section 15. Section 19-20-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-702 Optional allowances. (1) Until the first payment on account of any benefit becomes normally due, any member may elect to receive one of the optional allowances described in subsection (2) in lieu of the normal form of retirement allowance, which is provided for in 19-20-902 and part 8 of this chapter. If a member dies within 30 days after retirement, the member's election to receive an optional allowance is void and the member's death will be considered as that of an active member.

(2) An optional allowance is the actuarial equivalent of the member's service retirement or disability retirement allowance at the time of the member's retirement effective date and provides an allowance payable to the member throughout the member's lifetime and, upon the member's death, an allowance payable to the person that the member nominated by written designation, duly acknowledged and filed with the retirement board at the time of the member's retirement, in accordance with one of the following options:

(a) Option A—the optional allowance will be paid to the member throughout the member's lifetime and, upon the member's death, continue throughout the lifetime of the member's designated beneficiary.

(b) Option B—the optional allowance will be paid to the member throughout the member's lifetime, and upon the member's death, one-half of the optional allowance will be continued throughout the lifetime of the member's designated beneficiary.

(c) Option C—the optional allowance will be paid to the member throughout the member's lifetime, and upon the member's death, two-thirds of the optional allowance will be continued throughout the lifetime of the member's designated beneficiary.

(d) Period certain and life—a retirement allowance will be paid for a certain period of time or for the member's lifetime, whichever is greater.

(i) The member shall elect one of the following certain time periods:

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 438 1999

(A) 10 years if the member is 75 years of age or younger at the time of retirement; or

(B) 20 years if the member is 65 years of age or younger at the time of retirement.

(ii) At the time of retirement, the member shall file with the board a written nomination of beneficiaries to receive payments if the member dies before the end of the certain period elected. Unless limited by a family law order, the nominated beneficiary may be changed by the member at any time by filing with the board a written notice designating different beneficiaries.

(3) (a) Upon written ~~request~~ application to the retirement board, a retired member whose effective date of retirement is before October 1, 1993, and who is receiving an optional retirement allowance may designate a different beneficiary, select a different option, or convert the member's optional retirement allowance to a ~~regular retirement or disability allowance~~ normal form of retirement allowance if:

(i) the original beneficiary has died~~;or~~. The benefit must convert to the normal form of retirement allowance effective the first of the month following the death of the designated beneficiary.

(ii) the member has been divorced from the original beneficiary and the original beneficiary has not been granted the right to receive the optional retirement allowance as part of the divorce settlement. The benefit must convert to the normal form of retirement allowance effective the first of the month following receipt of a written application and verification that the original beneficiary has not been granted the right to receive the optional retirement allowance as part of the divorce settlement.

(h) Upon receipt of the ~~request~~ written application, the board shall actuarially adjust the member's monthly retirement or disability allowance to reflect the change.

(4) ~~Effective on the first of the month following the death of a person nominated as the designated beneficiary under subsection (2)(a), (2)(b), or (2)(c), any~~ A retired member receiving an optional retirement allowance pursuant to subsection (2)(a), (2)(b), or (2)(c) that is effective after October 1, 1993, ~~will revert~~ may file a written application to revert the optional retirement allowance to the full normal form of retirement allowance available at the time of retirement if:

(a) the original beneficiary has died. The benefit must revert to the full normal form of retirement allowance effective the first of the month following the death of the designated beneficiary.

(b) the member has been divorced from the original beneficiary and the original beneficiary has not been granted the right to receive the optional retirement allowance as part of the divorce settlement. The benefit must revert to the full normal form of retirement allowance effective the first of the month following receipt of a written application and verification that the original beneficiary has not been granted the right to receive the optional retirement allowance as part of the divorce settlement.

(5) The normal form of retirement allowance available must be increased by the value of any postretirement adjustments received by the member since the effective date of retirement.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 439 1999

(6) The retired member ~~may, within 18 months of the death of the designated beneficiary,~~ shall file ~~a~~ the written application required by subsection (3) or (4) with the board to designate a different beneficiary ~~and~~ or to select an actuarially equivalent optional allowance, or both, within 18 months of the death or divorce of the designated beneficiary. ~~The optional allowance is effective on the first day of the month following receipt of the retiree's application.~~"

Section 16. Section 19-20-703, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-703. Payments to be monthly. (1) All retirement allowances must be paid in equal monthly installments.

(2) The retirement allowance may commence:

(a) no earlier than the first day of the month following the member's termination date or on the first day of the month following the date when the member first becomes eligible, whichever date is later; or

(b) if requested by the inactive member in writing:

(i) on the first day of a later month; or

(ii) on the first day of the month following the member's 60th birthday.

(3) Distribution of a member's benefit must begin by the later of the April 1 following the calendar year in which a member attains age 70 1/2 or April 1 of the year following the calendar year in which the member terminates. If a member fails to apply for retirement benefits by the later of either of those dates, the board shall begin distribution of the monthly benefit as provided in 19-20-702(2)(d)(i)(A).

(4) The life expectancy of a member or the member's beneficiary may not be recalculated after benefits commence."

Section 17. Section 19-20-710, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-710. Maximum benefit limitation. ~~No~~ A monthly benefit paid under the retirement system provided for in this chapter may not exceed the annual limits on benefits as specified in section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code ~~of 1986 and adjusted annually by the commissioner of internal revenue~~ for calendar years 1988 and thereafter. However, benefits in excess of those limits may be paid from an excess benefit arrangement subject to [section 19]."

Section 18. Section 19-20-716, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-716. Termination pay. (1) If a member terminates and receives termination pay ~~at the time of termination and elects to retire~~ at ~~that~~ the time of retirement, the member shall select, subject to subsection (4) and by executing a binding, irrevocable written election at least 90 days before the member's termination date, one of the following options:

~~(1)~~(a) Option 1—The member may use the total termination pay in the calculation of the member's average final compensation. The member and the employer shall pay contributions to the retirement system as determined by the board to adequately compensate the system for the additional retirement benefit. The contributions must be made at the time of termination.

~~(2)~~(b) Option 2—The member may use a yearly amount of the total termination pay added to each of the 3 consecutive years' salary used in the calculation of the member's average final compensation. To determine the amount of termination pay used in the calculation of average final compensation, termination pay must be divided by the total number of years of creditable service to determine a yearly amount. The member and the employer shall pay contributions on the termination pay according to the rates provided for in 19-20-602 and 19-20-605(1). The contributions must be made at the time of termination.

~~(3)~~(c) Option 3—The member may exclude the termination pay from the average final compensation. A contribution is not required of either the member or the employer~~, and any contributions made under 19-20-602 and 19-20-605 must be refunded~~.

(2) A binding, irrevocable election required by this section must be executed by both the member and the employer and must contain statements with regard to the contributions required to be made by the member under subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) that:

(a) the contributions being picked up, although designated as member contributions, are being paid by the employer directly to the system in lieu of contributions by the member and that the picked up contributions are paid from the same source as compensation is paid;

(b) the member may not choose to directly receive the amounts deducted from the member's termination pay instead of having them paid by the employer to the system;

(c) the member may not prepay any portion of the contributions; and

(d) the effective date of the pick up is the date of execution of the binding, irrevocable election by both the member and employer. The pick up does not apply to a contribution made before the effective date of the pick up.

(3) Pursuant to subsection (2), contributions required under subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) must be:

(a) deducted from the portion of termination pay that:

(i) constitutes wages for the purposes of section 3121 of the Internal Revenue Code, determined without regard to the wage base limitation; and

(ii) can be included in the member's gross income for federal tax purposes; and

(b) picked up by the employer.

(4) If a member fails to make the written election within the time period required in subsection (1) or if the member contribution is greater than the total amount of termination pay, the member may contribute for the purposes specified in subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) all or any part of the termination pay received. A contribution made pursuant to this subsection cannot be picked up by the employer and is subject to the limitations of section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code."

Section 19. Maximum contribution limitation. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the board may modify a request by a participant to make a contribution to the system if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits in section 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code by using the following methods:

(a) If the system's law requires a lump-sum payment for purchase of service credit, the board may establish a periodic payment plan in order to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits of section 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 441 1999

(b) If the board's option in subsection (1)(a) will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits in section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the board may direct the excess contribution to the qualified excess benefit arrangement pursuant to section 415(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) If the board's options in subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits of section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the hoard shall reduce or refuse the contribution.

(3) The board shall use the provisions of section 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the provisions apply to a government plan, to facilitate member's service purchases. An eligible participant in a retirement plan, as defined by section 1526 of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, 26 U.S.C. 415, may purchase service credit without regard to the limitations of section 415(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code under the Montana statutes in effect on August 5, 1997.

(4) For the purpose of calculating the maximum contribution under section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, the definitions of "compensation", "wages", and "salary" include the amount of any elective deferral, as defined in section 402(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any contribution that is contributed or deferred by the employer at the election of the member and that is not includable in the gross income of the member by reason of sections 125, 403(b), or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 20. Section 19-20-801, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-801. Eligibility for service retirement. A member who has at least 5 full years of creditable service~~, whose last 5 years of creditable service were in this state,~~ and who has attained the age of 60 or has been credited with full-time or part-time creditable service in 25 or more years may retire from service if the member has terminated employment in all positions from which the member is eligible to retire and files with the retirement board a written application ~~setting forth the fact of the member's retirement~~."

Section 21. Section 19-20-802, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-802. Early retirement. (1) A member who is not eligible for service retirement but who has at least 5 years of creditable service~~, whose last 5 years of creditable service were in this state,~~ and who has attainod the age of 50 may retire from service and be eligible for an early retirement allowance if ~~he~~ the member files with the retirement board ~~his~~ the member's written application ~~setting forth the fact of his retirement~~.

(2) The early retirement allowance ~~shall~~ must be determined as prescrihed in 19-20-804(1) and section 5, Chapter 549, Laws of 1981, with tbe exception tbat the allowance will be reduced as follows:

(b) by 3/10 of 1% multiplied by tbe number of months in excess of the 60 months in subsection (2)(a) but not to exceed 60 additional months that the retirement date precedes the date on which ~~he~~ the member would have retired had ~~he~~ the member attained 60 years of age or had ~~he~~ the member completed 25 years of creditable service."

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 442 1999

Section 22. Section 19-20-804, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-804. Allowance for service retirement. (1) Upon termination, an eligible member must receive a retirement allowance equal to one-sixtieth of the member's average final compensation, as limited by 19-20-715, multiplied by the sum of the number of years of creditable service~~,~~ and service transferred under 19-20-409~~, and additional service purchased under 19-20-412~~.

The reinstated retirement benefit is the amount that the retired member would have been entitled to receive had the retired member not returned to employment.

(c) Upon retirement after cancellation of a retired member's benefit pursuant to subsection (3)(a), a retired member who is reemployed as an active member for a minimum of 1 year of full-time service must receive a recalculated benefit. The recalculated benefit is based on the service credit accumulated at the time of the member's previous retirement plus any service credit accumulated subsequent to reemployment.

(4) If an early-retired member under 19-20-802 is reemployed with the same employer within 30 days from the member's effective data of retirement or if the early-retired member is guaranteed reemployment with the same employer, the member must be considered to have continued in the status of an active member and not to have separated from service. Any retirement allowance payments received by the member must be repaid to the system, together with interest, at the actuarially assumed rate, and the retirement allowance must be terminated."

Section 23. Section 19-20-901, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-901. Eligibility for disability retirement — determination by board. (1) Upon the application of a member or of the member's employer for a disability retirement allowance, any member who has 5 or more years of creditable service and who has become disabled while being an active member may be retired by the retirement board the month immediately following the month in which employment is terminated. (b) one-fourth of the member's average final compensation.

(2) The earned compensation in the year of termination that is included in the calculation of average final compensation of a member who is awarded a disability retirement allowance prior to the completion of a full year is the compensation, pay, or salary that tbe member would have received under the member's contract had the member completed the full year. retain the right to the salvaged water for heneficial use. Any use of the right to salvaged water for any purpose or in any place other than that associated with the original appropriation right must be approved by the department as a change in appropriation right in accordance with 85-2-402. Sale of the right to salvaged water must also be in accordance with 85-2-403, and the lease of the right to salvaged water for instream flow purposes must be in accordance with 85-2-408, 85-2-436, or 85-2-439."

Section 2. Section 85-2-436, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-436. (Temporary) Water leasing study. (1) The department of fish, wildlife, and parks and the department, in consultation with the environmental quality council, shall conduct and coordinate a study that, at a minimum:

(a) provides the following data for each designated stream reach and each pilot lease entered into under subsection (2):

(i) the length of the stream reach and how it is determined;

(ii) technical methods and data used to determine critical streamflow or volume needed to preserve fisheries;

(iii) legal standards and technical data used to determine and substantiate the amount of water available for instream flows through leasing of existing rights;

(iv) contractual parameters, conditions, and other steps taken to ensure that each lease in no way harms other appropriators, particularly if the stream is one that experiences natural dewatering; and

(v) methods and technical means used to monitor use of water under each lease;

(b) based on the data provided under subsection (1)(a), develops a complete model of a water lease and lease authorization that includes a step-by-step explanation of the process from initiation to completion.

(2) (a) For purposes of undertaking the study described in subsection (1) and as authorized by law, the department of fish, wildlife, and parks and the department may engage in the activities described in this subsection (2). Except as provided in 85-2-439, for purposes of this study, this section is the exclusive means by which the department of fish, wildlife, and parks may seek to change an appropriation right to an instream flow purpose.

~~(a)~~(b) The department of fish, wildlife, and parks, with the consent of the commission, may lease existing rights for the purpose of maintaining or enhancing streamflows for the benefit of fisheries in stream reaches determined eligible by the department pursuant to 85-2-437.

~~(b)~~(c) Upon receipt of a correct and complete application for a lease from the department of fish, wildlife, and parks, the department shall publish notice of the application as provided in 85-2-307. Parties who believe that they may be adversely affected by the proposed lease may file an objection as provided in 85-2-308. A lease may not be approved until all objections are resolved. After resolving all objections filed under 85-2-308, the department shall authorize a lease of an existing right for the purpose of maintaining or enhancing streamflows for the benefit of fisheries if the applicant submits a correct and complete application and meets the requirements of 85-2-402.

~~(c)~~(d) The application for a lease authorization must include specific information on the length and location of the stream reach in which the streamflow must be maintained or enhanced and must provide a detailed streamflow measuring plan that describes the points where and the manner in which the streamflow must be measured.

~~(d)~~(e) The maximum quantity of water that may be leased is the amount historically diverted by the lessor. However, only the amount historically consumed, or a smaller amount if specified by the department in the lease authorization, may be used to maintain or enhance streamflows below the lessor's point of diversion.

~~(e)~~(f) The lease may not be issued for a term of more than 10 years, hut it may be renewed once for up to 10 years, except that a lease of water made available from the development of a water conservation or storage project is restricted to a term equal to the expected life of the project but to not more than ~~20~~ 30 years. Upon receiving notice of a lease renewal, the department shall notify other appropriators potentially affected by the lease and shall allow 30 days for submission of new evidence of adverse effects to other water rights. A lease authorization is not required for a renewal unless an appropriator other than an appropriator described in subsection ~~(2)(i)~~ (2)(j) submits evidence of adverse effects to the appropriator's rights that has not been considered previously. If new evidence is submitted, a lease authorization must be obtained according to the requirements of 85-2-402.

~~(f)~~(g) During the term of the lease, the department may modify or revoke the lease authorization if an appropriator other than an appropriator described in subsection ~~(2)(i)~~ (2)(j) proves by a preponderance of evidence that the appropriator's water right is adversely affected.

~~(g)~~(h) The priority of appropriation for a lease under this section is the same as the priority of appropriation of the right that is leased.

~~(h)~~(i) Neither a change in appropriation right nor any other authorization is required for the reversion of the appropriation right to the lessor's previous use.

~~(i)~~(j) A person issued a water use permit with a priority of appropriation after the date of filing of an application for a lease authorization under this section may not object to the exercise of the lease according to its terms or the reversion of the appropriation right to the lessor according to the lessor's previous use.

~~(j)~~(k) The department of fish, wildlife, and parks shall pay all costs associated with installing devices or providing personnel to measure streamflows according to the measuring plan submitted under this section.

(3) (a) The department of fish, wildlife, and parks shall complete and submit to the department, commission, and environmental quality council an annual study progress report by December 1 of each year. This report must include the applicable information listed in subsection (1) for each lease, a summary of stream reach designation activity under 85-2-437, and a summary of leasing activity on all designated streams. If the department of fish, wildlife, and parks has not leased additional water rights under this section by December 1 of any year, the department of fish, wildlife, and parks shall provide compelling justification for that fact in the study progress report.

(b) A final study report must be adopted by the department and commission and submitted to the environmental quality council, which shall complete the final report by December 1, ~~1998~~ 2008.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 461 1999

(3) The department may designate no more than ~~20~~ 40 stream reaches in the state where water leasing pursuant to 85-2-436 may occur. (a) commissions, bonuses, and remuneration at the regular hourly rate for overtime work, holidays, vacations, and sickness periods;

(b) backpay or any similar pay made for or in regards to previous service by the employee for the employer, other than retirement or pension benefits from a qualified plan;

(c) tips or other gratuities received by the employee, to the extent that tips or gratuities are documented by the employee to the employer for tax purposes;

(d) income or payment in the form of a draw, wage, net profit, or substitute for money received or taken by a sole proprietor or partner, regardless of whether the sole proprietor or partner has performed work or provided services for that remuneration;

(e) board, lodging, rent, or housing if it constitutes a part of the employee's remuneration and is based on its actual value; and

(f) payments made to an employee on any basis other than time worked, including but not limited to piecework, an incentive plan, or profit-sharing arrangement.

(2) The term "wages" does not include any of the following:

(b) For good cause shown, if the use of the last four pay periods does not accurately reflect the claimant's employment history with the employer, the wage may be calculated by dividing the total earnings for an additional period of time, not to exceed 1 year prior to the date of injury, by the number of weeks in that period, including periods of idleness or seasonal fluctuations.

(4) (a) For the purpose of calculating compensation benefits for an employee working concurrent employments, the average actual wages must be calculated as provided in subsection (3). As used in this subsection, "concurrent employment" means employment in which the employee was actually employed at the time of the injury and would have continued to be employed without a break in the term of employment if not for the injury.

(h) The compensation benefits for a covered volunteer must be based on the average actual wages in the volunteer's regular employment, except self-employment as a sole proprietor or partner who elected not to be covered, from which the volunteer is disabled by the injury incurred.

(c) The compensation benefits for an employee working at two or more concurrent remunerated employments must be based on the aggregate of average actual wages of all employments, except self-employment as a sole proprietor or partner who elected not to he covered, from which the employee is disabled by the injury incurred."

An eligible family may receive assistance under the job supplement program instead of receiving assistance under pathways or the community services program or may receive assistance under the job supplement program either prior to or after receiving assistance under pathways or the community services program.

(3) Services that may be provided to eligible individuals in the job supplement program include:

(4) (a) Pathways may provide eligible individuals with job training and education; resource referrals; assistance in obtaining child support; one-time cash payments for special employment-related needs; child-care assistance, as provided in 53-4-611 and as specified by department rule; cash assistance payments; supportive services, if funding is available; full medicaid benefits for dependent children, as provided in 53-6-101; and basic medicaid benefits for specified caretaker relatives, as provided in 53-6-101, pursuant to waivers of federal law that are granted by the secretary of the U.S. department of health and human services that permit limited benefits. (b) A specified caretaker relative in either a single-parent family or a two-parent family may receive assistance under pathways for a maximum of 24 months, subject to the time limitation on assistance provided in 53-4-231. The 24 months do not need to be consecutive.

(5) (a) In the community services program, a specified caretaker relative who has received 24 months of assistance under pathways may continue to receive assistance for the specified caretaker relative's needs for an additional 36 months or longer period, as specified by department rule, if the specified caretaker relative performs community service work as required by the department, subject to the time limitation on assistance provided in 53-4-231.

(b) A specified caretaker relative who performs community service work as required is entitled to cash assistance for the specified caretaker relative's needs and basic medicaid benefits, as provided in 53-6-101, pursuant to waivers of federal law that are granted by the secretary of the U.S. department of health and human services that permit limited benefits. However, a specified caretaker relative who is pregnant is entitled to full medicaid benefits.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 23-2-651, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-651. Purpose. The legislature finds that snowmobiling is a major recreational sport and a major industry in this state and recognizes that ~~there are inherent risks in the sport of snowmobiling that are essentially impossible for a snowmobile area operator to eliminate but that should be known by a reasonable and prudent snowmobiler. The purpose of 23-2-651 through 23-2-656 is to define those areas of responsibility and the acts for which a snowmobile area operator is liable for death or injury to any person or property and those risks for which a snowmobiler expressly assumes or must be considered to have voluntarily assumed the risk of death or injury and for which there can be no recovery~~ among the attractions of the sport are risks, inherent and otherwise. The state has a legitimate interest in:

(1) maintaining the economic viability of the snowmobiling industry by discouraging claims based on damages resulting from risks inherent in the sport;

(2) clarifying what the inherent risks of snowmobiling are; and

(3) establishing the duties of snowmobilers and snowmobile area operators."

Section 2. Section 23-2-652, MCA, is amended to read:

(4) "Snowmobiler" means any person operating or riding a snowmobile."

Section 3. Section 23-2-653, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-653. Snowmobile area operators — duties ~~— restriction on liability~~. (1) ~~The~~ Consistent with the duty of reasonable care owed by a snowmobile area operator to a snowmobiler, the person responsible for the maintenance of or operation of a snowmobile area shall mark all trail maintenance vehicles and furnish the vehicles with flashing or rotating lights that must be in operation whenever the vehicles are working or are in movement in the snowmobile area.

~~(2) A snowmobile area operator is liable for death or injury to a snowmobiler or other person or property only for an act or omission that constitutes gross negligence.~~

(2) The snowmobile area operator owes a duty of reasonable care, as required by 27-1-701, to a snowmobiler except for the risks inherent in the sport of snowmobiling.

(3) Except as provided in this section, a snowmobile area operator has no duty to eliminate, alter, control, or lessen the ~~risk~~ risks inherent in the sport of snowmobiling. ~~A snowmobile area operator who attempts to eliminate, alter, control, or lessen the risk inherent in the sport of snowmobiling is liable only for an act or omission that constitutes gross negligence.~~"

Section 4. Section 23-2-654, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-654. Snowmobiler's assumption of responsibility — duties. (1) A snowmobiler ~~shall accept all legal responsibility for injury or damage of any kind to the extent that the injury or damage results from risks inherent in the sport of snowmobiling and has the duty to regulate personal conduct at all times so that injury to self or other persons or property that results from the risks inherent in the sport of snowmobiling is avoided. The risks inherent in the sport of snowmobiling include variations in terrain, surface or subsurface snow or ice conditions, cornices, avalanches, poor visibility, bare spots, rocks, trees, other forms of forest growth or debris, and plainly marked trail maintenance equipment~~ shall operate a snowmobile at all times in a manner that avoids injury to self and others and must be aware of the inherent risks in the sport of snowmobiling.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 515 1999

(2) A snowmobiler ~~is responsible for~~ shall:

(a) ~~knowing~~ know the range of the snowmobiler's ~~own~~ ability ~~to snowmobile any slope, trail, or area~~ and ~~for snowmobiling~~ snowmobile safely within the limits of ~~the snowmobiler's~~ that ability ~~considering the conditions;~~ and the snowmobiler's equipment so as to negotiate any section of terrain or snowmobile trail safely and without injury or damage. A snowmobiler must be aware that the snowmobiler's ability may vary because of terrain or trail changes caused by weather, grooming changes, or snowmobile use.

Section 6. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 73, Chapter 550, Laws of 1997, is amended to read:

"Section 73. Intervention in delinquency pilot program — department study of youth placement costs — development of incremental scale — report to legislature — department responsibilities. (1) The department of corrections may conduct a pilot project, the results of which may be used as the basis for developing the incremental costs scale provided for in subsection (3). As a part of the pilot project, the department may identify each judicial district as a high-spending district, an average-spending district, or a low-spending district for youth placements. The department may analyze each category of district and identify the reasons for the spending characteristics in each category of district, such as types of youth, types of crimes committed, effectiveness of programs (including but not limited to the rates of recidivism), community sentiment, availability or lack of availability of placements, length of stay in placements, and case management. The department may target the high-spending districts and work with them in identifying and creating appropriate, lower-cost, and less restrictive placements.

(2) The department may create an account for a high-spending rural judicial district and a high-spending urban judicial district that is based on expenditures for fiscal year 1996 and fiscal year 1997 and may credit each with a proportion of appropriated placement funds. In fiscal year 1998 and fiscal year 1999, the department may create accounts for up to 10 additional judicial districts of which at least 2 judicial districts must have a historically high ratio of adjudication to secure commitment, as determined by the past 3 years of those judicial districts' commitment histories. The proportionate share of the appropriations must be based on the types of youth, types of placements, youth population from 10 to 18 years of age, and a measure of the youth crime rate. The department may work with the regional supervisor, the chief juvenile probation officer, and the youth placement committees in the respective judicial districts to educate them regarding their allocation, to identify all potential placements and funding sources, and to consider the lowest-cost option that is in the best interests of the youth, the victim, and the safety of the community.

(3) The department may study the expenditures for placements for youth offenders for the fiscal years 1996, 1997, ~~and~~ 1998, 1999, and 2000 and develop an incremental costs scale for the purposes of developing a system to charge each judicial district account with the costs of a placement and to credit a judicial district account for using the least restrictive placements and developing community-based programs. The proportional share allocated to each judicial district must be based on the types of youth, types of placements, youth population from 10 to 18 years of age, and a measure of the youth crime rate.

(4) If the department conducts a pilot program under this section, the department shall present a proposal to the ~~56th~~ 57th legislature that includes the following elements:

(a) The information gathered from the pilot program, as provided in subsections (2) and (3), must be used in the development of the incremental costs scale.

(b) There must be a recommendation for a method to return any balance remaining at the end of a fiscal year to the judicial districts for the explicit purposes of developing additional community programs for youth court purposes.

(c) The assumptions in subsection (5) must be incorporated as a part of the proposed incremental costs scale.

(d) There must be a recommendation and justification for whether to include the state youth correctional facilities and correctional facilities and programs operated by the department in the incremental costs scale.

(5) For purposes of a pilot program, the department shall assume that the department is responsible for:

(a) the payment of residential and treatment costs for adjudicated youth placed in an out-of-home residence or committed to the department for purposes of funding a private residential placement under 41-5-523 or [section 34];

(b) all placement costs of a youth adjudicated in youth court for an offense listed in 41-5-206;

(6) If the department conducts a pilot program under this section, the department shall prepare a summary of the results of the study and report to the ~~56th~~ 57th legislature."

Section 2. Standing masters — reference — powers. (1) A reference to a standing master must be made at the judge's discretion or by standing order of the district court.

(2) (a) The order of reference to the standing master may specify or limit the standing master's powers and may direct the standing master to present findings of fact and conclusions of law upon particular issues. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in tbe order, the standing master shall regulate all proceedings in every hearing before the standing master and implement measures necessary for the efficient performance of the standing master's duties under the order.

(b) The standing master may:

(i) require the production of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all hooks, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings that are applicable;

(ii) rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference;

(iii) put witnesses on oath and examine them;

(iv) call the parties to the action and examine them on oath; and

(v) issue temporary orders that are subject to review by the district court, upon objection by a party to the action.

(c) The standing master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in the Montana Rules of Evidence for a court sitting without a jury. Audio and video recordings are acceptable means of record so long as a master recording is properly preserved and can be transcribed for district court and appellate review.

shall immediately furnish the standing master with a copy of the order of reference. Unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the standing master shall set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within 20 days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. The standing master shall proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and standing master, may apply to the court for an order requiring the standing master to speed the proceedings and to make the report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the standing master may proceed ex parte or, in the standing master's discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.

(2) The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the standing master by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Rule 45 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. If, without adequate excuse, a witness fails to appear or give evidence, the witness may be punished for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Rules 37 and 45 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) When matters of accounting are in issue before the standing master, the standing master may prescribe the form in which the accounts must be submitted and may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the standing master may require a different form of statement to be furnished or the accounts or specific items to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as the standing master directs.

Section 4. Standing masters — findings of fact and conclusions of law — orders — contents and filing — review — stipulations as to findings. (1) Subject to the order of reference, the standing master shall submit findings of fact and conclusions of law, following a hearing upon the matters submitted to the standing master by the order of reference. When a hearing is not required, the standing master shall submit an order upon the matters submitted to the standing master by the order of reference. The standing master shall file the findings and conclusions or order with the clerk of the court and serve copies on all parties. All contested proceedings before the standing master must be recorded. The standing master shall, at the expense of the district court, file a recording of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The cost of the preparation of a duplicate of the recording is the responsibility of the objecting party. The objecting party shall serve a copy of the duplicate recording on adverse parties at the objecting party's expense.

(2) Within 10 days after being served with notice of the filing of the findings and conclusions or order, any party may serve written specific objections upon the other parties or may apply to the court for an extension to serve. Application to the court for action upon the findings and conclusions or order and upon the filing of specific objections to the findings and conclusions or order must be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Rule 6(d) of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. The court, after a hearing, may adopt the findings and conclusions or order and may modify, reject in whole or in part, receive further evidence, or recommit the findings and conclusions or order with instructions.

HeinOnline -- 1999 vol. I 561 1999

(3) The effect of a standing master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference, but when the parties stipulate that a standing master's findings of fact are final, only questions of law arising upon the findings and conclusions may be considered.

CHAPTER NO. 168

[SB 90]

AN ACT AMENDING THE VETERANS' PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT PREFERENCE LAW; PROVIDING FOR THE APPLICATION OF VETERANS' PREFERENCE BY AN EMPLOYER USING A NONSCORED PROCEDURE WHEN APPLICANTS HOLD SUBSTANTIALLY EQUAL QUALIFICATIONS; REQUIRING A PUBLIC EMPLOYER TO APPLY VETERANS' PREFERENCE WHEN NO APPLICANT MEETS THE MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS AND THE PUBLIC EMPLOYER FILLS A TRAINING POSITION; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 39-29-102, 39-29-103, AND 39-29-104, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-29-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-29-102. Point preference or alternative preference in initial hiring for certain applicants — substantially equivalent selection procedure. (1) Subject to the restrictions in subsections (2) and (3), whenever a public employer uses a scored procedure, an applicant for an initial hiring, as defined in 39-30-103, must have added to ~~his~~ the applicant's score the following percentage points of the total possible points that may be granted in the scored procedure:

(a) 5 percentage points if the applicant is a veteran; and

(b) 10 percentage points if the applicant is a disabled veteran or an eligible relative.

(2) A veteran, disabled veteran, or eligible relative may not receive the percentage points provided for in subsection (1) unless the person:

(a) is a United States citizen; and

(b) ~~received 70 or more percentage points of the total possible points that may be granted in the scored procedure.~~ meets the minimum qualifications required for the position. If no applicant meets the minimum qualifications and the public employer fills a training position, veterans' preference must be applied.

(3) A disabled veteran who receives 10 percentage points under subsection (1)(b) may not receive an additional 5 percentage points under subsection (1)(a).

(4) Whenever a public employer uses a selection procedure other than a scored procedure, the public employer shall give preference to a disabled veteran, eligible relative, or veteran, in that order, over any nonpreferred applicant holding substantially equal qualifications, as defined in 39-30-103."

Section 2. Section 39-29-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-29-103. Notice and claim of preference. (1) A public employer shall, by posting or on the application form, give notice of the ~~point~~ preference provided in 39-29-102.

(2) A job applicant who believes ~~he~~ that the applicant is eligible to receive a ~~point~~ preference shall claim the preference in writing before the time for filing applications for the position involved has passed. Failure to make a timely preference claim for a position is a complete defense to an action instituted by an applicant under 39-29-104 with regard to that position.

(3) If an applicant for a position makes a timely written preference claim, the public employer shall give written notice of its hiring decision to the applicant claiming preference."

Section 3. Section 39-29-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-29-104. Enforcement of preference. (1) An applicant who believes ~~he~~ that the applicant is entitled to but has not been given the ~~point~~ preference provided in 39-29-102 may, within 30 days of receipt of the notice of the hiring decision provided for in 39-29-103, submit to the public employer a written request for an explanation of the public employer's hiring decision. Within 15 days of receipt of the request, the public employer shall give the applicant a written explanation.

(2) After following the procedure described in subsection (1), the applicant may, within 90 days after receipt of notice of the hiring decision, file a petition in the district court in the county in which ~~his~~ the application was received by the public employer. The potition must state facts that on their face entitle the applicant to a ~~point~~ preference.

(3) (a) Upon filing of the petition, the court shall order the public employer to appear in court at a specified time not less than 5 or more than 10 days after the day the petition was filed and show cause why the applicant was not hired for the position. At the hearing, the public employer has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the public employer applied the ~~points~~ preference under 39-29-102 and made a reasonable hiring decision. The applicant has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that ~~he~~ the applicant is a preference-eligible applicant.

(b) The time to appear provided in subsection (3)(a) may be waived by stipulation of the parties. If a time to appear has been specified pursuant to subsection (3)(a), the court may, on motion of one of the parties or on stipulation of all of the parties, grant a continuance.

(c) If the public employer does not carry its burden of proof under subsection (3)(a) and the court finds that the applicant is a preference-eligible applicant, the court shall order the public employer to comply with the provisions of 39-29-102. In addition, the court shall, upon proper proof, grant an award of backpay, reasonable attorney fees, and costs.

(4) Failure of an applicant to file a petition under subsection (2) within 90 days bars the filing of a petition. If a public employer fails to provide an explanation under subsection (1) within 15 days and a petition is filed under subsection (2), the court shall order the public employer to comply with the provisions of 39-29-102.

(5) The Montana Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a proceeding under this section to the extent that they do not conflict with this section."

However, a licensed broker may pay a commission to a licensed broker of another state or jurisdiction if the nonresident broker has not conducted and does not conduct in this state a service for which a fee, compensation, or commission is paid.

(2) A nonresident licensee shall file an irrevocable written consent that legal actions arising out of a commenced or completed transaction may be commenced against the nonresident licensee in a county of this state that may be appropriate and designated by Title 25, chapter 2, part 1. The consent must be acknowledged and, if made by a corporation, must be authenticated by its seal."

Section 2. Section 37-51-310, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-51-310. Renewal. (1) License fees are due and payable for the ensuing licensure period at a time prescribed by department rule.
